NOTICE OF PENDENCY AND PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OF CLASS ACTION

If you purchased securities of Code Rebel Corporation (“Code Rebel” or the “Company”) during the period from May 19, 2015 through May 12, 2017, both dates inclusive (the “Class Period”), you could get a payment from a proposed class action settlement (the “Settlement”).

Those who filed a valid and otherwise accepted proof of claim form in the “Code Rebel Settlement,” (in which final judgment was entered on April 10, 2018 in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, styled as Springer. v. Code Rebel Corp., et al, Case No. 16 Civ. 3492) shall be deemed to have filed a Proof of Claim and Release in this action. You do not need to file another proof of claim if you already filed one in the Code Rebel Settlement pending in New York.

Under law, a California Superior Court has authorized this Notice. This is not attorney advertising.

- If approved by the Court, the Settlement will provide four hundred fifteen thousand dollars ($415,000) (the “Settlement Amount”), plus interest as it accrues, minus attorneys’ fees (of up to 33.3% of the Settlement Amount), costs (of up to $30,000), administrative expenses (of up to $75,000), and net of any taxes on interest (which counsel does not expect to exceed $1,000), to pay claims of investors who purchased Code Rebel securities during the Class Period.
- The Settlement represents an estimated average recovery of $.04 per share of Code for the approximately 9.9 million shares available for trading during the Class Period. This estimate solely reflects the average recovery per share for shares available for trading during the Class Period. This is not an estimate of the actual recovery per share you should expect. Your actual recovery will depend on the aggregate losses of all Settlement Class Members, the date(s) you purchased and sold Code Rebel securities, and the total number of claims filed.
- Attorneys for Plaintiffs (“Plaintiffs’ Counsel”) intend to ask the Court to award them fees of up to one-third of the Class Settlement Amount ($138,333.33), reimbursement of litigation expenses of no more than $30,000, and an award to the Plaintiffs collectively not to exceed $2,000 ($1,000 each). Collectively, the attorneys’ fees and expenses and award to Plaintiffs are estimated to average $.02 per share of Code Rebel securities. If approved by the Court, these amounts will be paid from the Gross Settlement Fund.
- The approximate recovery, after deduction of attorneys’ fees and expenses approved by the Court, is an average of $.02 per share of Code Rebel securities. This estimate is based on the assumptions set forth in the preceding paragraph. Your actual recovery, if any, will depend on the aggregate losses of all Settlement Class Members, the date(s) you purchased and sold Code Rebel securities, the purchase and sales prices, and the total number and amount of claims filed.
- The Settlement resolves the Securities Class Actions concerning whether Lichter, Yu & Associates, Inc. (the “Settling Defendant”) violated federal securities laws by allegedly making misrepresentations and/or omissions of material fact in various filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and in other public statements to the investing public concerning Code Rebel’s financial statements and condition. Settling Defendant has denied and continues to deny each, any and all allegations of wrongdoing, fault, liability or damage whatsoever asserted by Plaintiffs. Settling Defendant has also denied, inter alia, the allegations that Plaintiffs or the Settlement Class have suffered damages or that Plaintiffs or the Settlement Class were harmed by the conduct alleged in the Actions. Settling Defendant continues to believe the claims asserted against them in the Actions are without merit.
- Your legal rights will be affected whether you act or do not act. If you do not act, you may permanently forfeit your right to recover on this claim. Therefore, you should read this Notice carefully.

DEFINITIONS

All capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the same meanings as set forth in the Second Amended Settlement Agreement and Release, dated May 25, 2018 (the "Agreement").

COMMON QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS CONCERNING THE SETTLEMENT

1. Why did I get this Notice?

You or someone in your family may have acquired Code Rebel securities between May 19, 2015 and May 12, 2017, both dates inclusive.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

The case is known as Healy v. Arben Kryeziu a/k/a Arben Kane, et al., Los Angeles Superior Court case number BC 624918, consolidated with Torres v. Arben Kryeziu a/k/a Arben Kane, et al., Los Angeles Superior Court case number BC 629838 (the "Action"). The Court in charge of the case is the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

The Action involves allegations that Settling Defendant violated certain federal securities laws by making misrepresentations or omissions of material fact concerning Code Rebel's financial statements and condition. The First Amended Complaint (the "Complaint") alleges that the misstatements or omissions artificially inflated the price of Code Rebel securities, and that the securities prices dropped in response to certain subsequent disclosures. Settling Defendant has denied and continue to deny each, any and all allegations of wrongdoing, fault, liability or damage whatsoever asserted in the Action. The Settlement shall in no event be construed as, or deemed to be evidence of, liability, fault, wrongdoing, injury or damages, or of any wrongful conduct, acts or omissions on the part of any of the Released Parties, or of any infirmity of any defense, or of any damages to the Plaintiffs or any other Settlement Class Member. The Settlement resolves all of the claims in the Action, as well as certain other claims or potential claims, whether known or unknown.

3. Why is this a class action?

In a class action, one or more persons and/or entities, called plaintiffs, sue on behalf of all persons and/or entities who have similar claims. All of these persons and/or entities are referred to collectively as a class, and these individual persons and/or entities are known as class members. One court resolves all of the issues for all class members, except for those class members who exclude themselves from the class.

4. Why is there a Settlement?

Plaintiffs and Settling Defendant do not agree regarding the merits of Plaintiffs' allegations and Settling Defendant's defenses with respect to liability or the average amount of damages per share, if any, that would be recoverable if Plaintiffs were to prevail at trial on each claim. The issues on which Plaintiffs and the Settling Defendant disagree include: (1) whether the challenged statements were materially false or misleading or otherwise actionable under federal securities law; (2) whether the alleged disclosures were corrective disclosures; (3) the causes of the loss in the value of the securities; and (4) the amount of alleged damages, if any, that could be recovered at trial.

This matter has not gone to trial and the Court has not decided in favor of either Plaintiffs or Settling Defendant. Instead, Plaintiffs and Settling Defendant have agreed to settle the case. Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Counsel believe the Settlement is best for all Settlement Class Members because of the risks associated with continued litigation and the nature of the defenses raised by the Settling Defendant. Among the reasons that Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Counsel believe the Settlement is fair is the fact that there is uncertainty about whether they will be able to prove that any challenged statement was false or misleading, that the alleged misstatements and omissions actually caused the Settlement Class any damages, and the amount of damages, if any. No outcome is certain at trial and Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Counsel believe that this immediate Settlement is the best outcome for Class Members given the risks of complex securities litigation. Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Counsel conducted an investigation into claims and evaluated defenses and arguments raised by Settling Defendant. This Settlement was reached only after the Settling Parties engaged in an arms'-length mediation. The Settling Parties believe the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate due to the amount of the fee, risks in protracted litigation, experience of counsel, and the assistance of a third-party neutral to facilitate the Settlement. In particular, Plaintiffs' Counsel considered the fact that the Settling Defendant here would only be liable for proportional damages; the fact that the underlying company Code Rebel and its officers and directors have already settled claims in federal court in New York and Plaintiffs and the Class here will recover certain damages in connection with that settlement as well. Counsel also considered the fact that it was unclear at the time of filing and settling whether Securities Act claims could be maintained in state court, the relevant insurance policy available to the Settling Defendant, and the portion of the insurance policy being made available for settlement versus the likelihood that the insurance policy could be completely eroded should litigation continue. In addition, based on the number of claim forms received to date in the Code Rebel Settlement, class members who submitted claim forms will receive close to 70% of their losses before attorneys' fees are deducted and approximately 50% of their losses after attorneys' fees are deducted, which represents a recovery far beyond the traditional recovery in cases of this size. See generally Recent Trends in Securities Class Action Litigation: 2017 Full-Year Review.

http://www.nera.com/content/dam/nera/publications/2018/PUB_Year_End_Trends_Report_0118_final.pdf

Even if Plaintiffs were to win at trial, and also prevail on any on appeal, Plaintiffs might not be able to collect some, or all, of any judgment they are awarded. Moreover, while litigation of this type is usually expensive, it appears that, even if Plaintiffs' allegations were found to be true, the total amount of damages to which Settlement Class Members would be entitled could be substantially reduced.

5. How do I know if I am part of the Settlement?

The Settlement Class consists of those who purchased the securities of Code Rebel from May 19, 2015 through May 12, 2017, both dates inclusive.

6. Are there exceptions to being included?

Yes. Excluded from the Class are: (a) Such persons or entities who submitted valid and timely requests for exclusion from the Class; (b) Settling Defendant, their family members, and their legal representatives, heirs, successors or assigns, and any entity in which any Settling Defendant has or had a controlling interest; and (c) persons who suffered no compensable losses.

7. I am still not sure whether I am included.

If you are still not sure whether you are included, you can ask for free help. For more information, you can contact the Claims Administrator, Strategic Claims Services, by phone at (866) 274-4004 or by facsimile at (610) 565-7985, visit the website www.strategicclaims.net, or fill out and return the Proof of Claim and Release Form described in Question 9, to see if you qualify.

8. What does the Settlement provide?

a. What is the settlement fund?

The proposed Settlement provides for Settling Defendant's insurer to pay four hundred fifteen thousand dollars ($415,000) into a settlement fund (the "Settlement Fund"). The Settlement is subject to Court approval. Also, subject to the Court's approval, a portion of the Settlement Fund will be used to pay attorneys' fees and reasonable litigation expenses to Plaintiffs' Counsel and any award to the Plaintiffs. A portion of the Settlement Fund also will be used to pay taxes due on interest earned by the Settlement Fund, if necessary, and the costs of the claims administration, including the costs of printing and mailing notice and the costs of publishing notice. After the foregoing deductions from the Settlement Fund have been made, the amount remaining (the "Net Settlement Fund") will be distributed to Settlement Class Members who submit timely, valid claims, according to the Plan of Allocation to be approved by the Court.

b. What can you expect to receive under the proposed Settlement?

Your share of the Net Settlement Fund will or may depend on: (i) the number of claims filed; (ii) the dates you purchased and sold Code Rebel securities; (iii) the prices of your purchases and sales; (iv) the amount of administrative costs, including the costs of notice; and (v) the amount awarded by the Court to Plaintiffs' Counsel for attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses and to Plaintiffs.

The Claims Administrator will determine each Settlement Class Member's pro rata share of the Net Settlement Fund based upon each Settlement Class Member's valid "Recognized Loss." The Recognized Loss formula is not intended to be an estimate of the amount that a Settlement Class Member might have been able to recover after a trial; it also is not an estimate of the amount that will be paid to Settlement Class Members pursuant to the Settlement. The Recognized Loss formula is the basis upon which the Net Settlement Fund will be proportionately allocated to the Settlement Class Members with valid claims ("Authorized Claimants").

The Net Settlement Fund will be distributed to Settlement Class Members who submit a Proof of Claim and Release Form and whose claims for recovery are allowed by the Claims Administrator pursuant to the terms of the Agreement or by order of the Court under the below Plan of Allocation, which reflects Plaintiffs' contention that because of the alleged misrepresentations made by Settling Defendant, the price of Code Rebel securities was artificially inflated during the relevant period and that certain subsequent disclosures caused changes in the inflated price of Code Rebel securities. Settling Defendant has denied and continues to deny these allegations and any and all allegations of wrongdoing, fault, liability or damage whatsoever asserted in the Actions.

PROPOSED PLAN OF ALLOCATION OF THE NET SETTLEMENT FUND

The Plan of Allocation is a matter separate and apart from the proposed Settlement, and any decision by the Court concerning the Plan of Allocation shall not affect the validity or finality of the proposed Settlement. The Court may approve the Plan of Allocation with or without modifications agreed to among the parties, or another plan of allocation, without further notice to Settlement Class Members. Any orders regarding a modification of the Plan of Allocation will be posted to the Claims Administrator's website, www.strategicclaims.net.

The Recognized Loss formula is the basis upon which the Net Settlement Fund will be proportionately allocated to the Authorized Claimants. To the extent there are sufficient funds remaining in the Net Settlement Fund, each Authorized Claimant will receive an amount equal to the Authorized Claimant's Recognized Loss. If, however, Net Settlement Fund is not sufficient to permit payment of the total Recognized Loss of each Authorized Claimant, then each Authorized Claimant shall be paid the percentage of the Net Settlement Fund that each Authorized Claimant's Recognized Loss bears to the total Recognized Losses of all Authorized Claimants (i.e., "pro rata share"). Payment in this manner shall be deemed conclusive against all Authorized Claimants. No distribution will be made on a claim where the potential distribution amount is less than ten dollars ($10.00) in cash.

If any of the Net Settlement Fund remains by reason of uncashed checks, or otherwise, after the Claims Administrator has made reasonable and diligent efforts to have Authorized Claimants who are entitled to participate in the distribution of the Net Settlement Fund cash their distribution checks, then any balance remaining in the Net Settlement Fund six (6) months after the initial distribution of such funds shall be used: (i) first, to pay any amounts mistakenly omitted from the initial distribution to Authorized Claimants or to pay any late, but otherwise valid and fully documented claims received after the cut-off date used to make the initial distribution, provided that such distributions to any late post-distribution claimants meet all of the other criteria for inclusion in the initial distribution, including the $10.00 minimum check amount set forth in the Notice; (ii) second, to pay any additional Notice and Administration Expenses incurred in administering the Settlement; and (iii) finally, to make a second distribution to Authorized Claimants who cashed their checks from the initial distribution and who would receive at least $10.00 from such second distribution, after payment of the estimated costs or fees to be incurred in administering the Net Settlement Fund and in making this second distribution, if such second distribution is economically feasible. If six (6) months after such second distribution, if undertaken, or if such second distribution is not undertaken, and if any funds shall remain in the Net Settlement Fund after the Claims Administrator has made reasonable and diligent efforts to have Authorized Claimants who are entitled to participate in this Settlement cash their checks, then any funds remaining in the Net Settlement Fund shall be donated to a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization(s) selected by Plaintiff's Lead Counsel.

THE BASIS FOR CALCULATING YOUR RECOGNIZED LOSS:

Each Authorized Claimant shall be allocated a pro rata share of the Net Settlement Fund based on his, her or its Recognized Loss as compared to the total Recognized Losses of all Authorized Claimants.

A) Recognized Loss Calculation of Securities¹ Purchased During the Class Period:

1) For shares purchased between May 19, 2015 and May 5, 2016, inclusive:

- a. For shares retained at the end of trading on August 19, 2016, the Recognized Loss shall be the lesser of:
 - (1) $2.11 per share; or
 - (2) the difference between the purchase price per share and $.06 per share.²
- b. For shares sold between May 19, 2015 and May 5, 2016, inclusive, the Recognized Loss shall be zero.

² Pursuant to Section 21(D)(e)(1) of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, "in any private action arising under this title in which the plaintiff seeks to establish damages by reference to the market price of a security, the award of damages to the plaintiff shall not exceed the difference between the purchase or sale price paid or received, as appropriate, by the plaintiff for the subject security and the mean trading price of that security during the 90-day period beginning on the date on which the information correcting the misstatement or omission that is the basis for the action is disseminated." $.06 per share was the mean (average) daily closing trading price of Code Rebel common stock during the 90-day period beginning on May 23, 2016 and ending on August 19, 2016. Code Rebel's stock was suspended from trading from May 6, 2016 to May 20, 2016.

- c. For shares sold between May 6, 2016 and August 19, 2016, inclusive, the Recognized Loss shall be the lesser of:
 - (1) $2.11 per share; or
 - (2) the difference between the purchase price per share and the average closing stock price as of date of sale provided in Table A below.

2) For shares purchased between May 6, 2016 and May 12, 2017, inclusive, the Recognized Loss shall be zero.

For purposes of calculating your Recognized Loss, the date of purchase or sale is the “contract” or “trade” date and not the “settlement” or “payment” date. The receipt or grant by gift, inheritance or operation of law of Code Rebel shares shall not be deemed a purchase or sale of Code Rebel shares for the calculation of an Authorized Claimant’s Recognized Loss.

For purposes of calculating your Recognized Loss, all purchases and sales shall be matched on a First In First Out (“FIFO”) basis in chronological order. Therefore, on the Proof of Claim enclosed with this Notice, you must provide all purchases and sales of Code Rebel shares during the period from May 19, 2015 through August 19, 2016, inclusive.

Payment pursuant to the Plan of Allocation approved by the Court shall be conclusive against all Authorized Claimants. No person shall have any claim against Defendant, Defendant’s counsel, Plaintiff, Plaintiff’s Counsel or the Claims Administrator or other agent designated by Plaintiff’s Counsel based on the distributions made substantially in accordance with the Agreement and the Settlement contained therein, the Plan of Allocation, or further orders of the Court. Each claimant shall be deemed to have submitted to the jurisdiction of the Court with respect to the claimant’s Proof of Claim and Release Form. All persons involved in the review, verification, calculation, tabulation, or any other aspect of the processing of the claims submitted in connection with the Settlement, or otherwise involved in the administration or taxation of the Settlement Fund or the Net Settlement Fund shall be released and discharged from any and all claims arising out of such involvement, and all Class Members, whether or not they are to receive payment from the Net Settlement Fund, will be barred from making any further claim against the Net Settlement Fund beyond the amount allocated to them as provided in any distribution orders entered by the Court.

(c) Are there any further limitations on the amount I may receive?

- (i) Transactions during the Class Period resulting in a gain shall be netted against the Class Member’s transactions resulting in a loss to arrive at the Recognized Loss.
- (ii) Any Class Members whose collective transactions in Code Rebel shares during the Class Period resulted in a net gain shall not be entitled to share in the Net Settlement Fund.
- (iii) The purchase and sales prices exclude any brokerage commissions, transfer taxes or other fees.
- (iv) The covering purchase of a short sale is not an eligible purchase. Gifts and transfers are not eligible purchases.

9. How can I get a payment?

Those who filed a valid and otherwise accepted proof of claim form in the Code Rebel Settlement, Springer. v. Code Rebel Corp., et al, Case No. 16 Civ. 3492 (S.D.N.Y.) shall be deemed to have filed a Proof of Claim and Release in this action. You do not need to file another proof of claim if you already filed one in the Code Rebel Settlement pending in New York.

To qualify for a payment, you must send in a form entitled “Proof of Claim and Release Form.” This Proof of Claim and Release Form is attached to this Notice. You may also obtain a Proof of Claim and Release Form on the Internet at www.strategicclaims.net. Read the instructions carefully, fill out the form, sign it in the location indicated, and mail the claim form together with all documentation requested in the form, postmarked no later than September 25, 2018, to the Claims Administrator:

10. What am I giving up to get a payment or stay in the Class?

Unless you exclude yourself from the Settlement Class by the September 25, 2018 deadline, you will remain a member of the Settlement Class and will be bound by the release of claims against the Settling Defendant and other Released Parties if the Settlement is approved. That means you and all other Settlement Class Members and each of their respective parent entities, associates, affiliates, subsidiaries, predecessors, successors, assigns, attorneys, immediate family members heirs, representatives, administrators, executors, devisees, legatees, and estates will release (agreeing never to sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit) as against the Defendant and other Released Parties from any and all liability, claims or demands in connection with the Securities Claims, as well as any and all liability, claims or demands, whether known or unknown, that were or could have been asserted, arising from or relating to any activities of Code Rebel, or in connection with Settling Defendant’s activities in auditing the balance sheets of Code Rebel, including without limitation any liability, claims or demands, whether known or unknown, that were or could have been asserted, limited to the Plaintiffs’ and Settlement Class Members’ purchase and sale of Code Rebel securities during the Class Period, arising from or relating to public disclosures or omissions made by Code Rebel or by Settling Defendant, or arising from or relating to the SEC’s order dated May 6, 2016, suspending trading in Code Rebel’s stock. It means that all of the Court’s orders will apply to you and legally bind you. That means you will accept a share of the Net Settlement Fund as sole compensation for any losses you suffered in the purchase, acquisitions, sale or ownership of Code Rebel securities during the Class Period. The specific terms of the release are included in the Agreement.

11. How do I get out of the Settlement?

If you do not want to receive a payment from this Settlement, and you want to keep any right you may have to sue or continue to sue Settling Defendant or other Released Parties on your own about the claims being released in this Settlement, then you must take steps to exclude yourself from the Settlement. To exclude yourself from the Settlement, you must mail a written request that clearly indicates your name, address, and phone number and states that you “request to be excluded from the Settlement Class in Healy v. Arben Kryeziu a/k/a Arben Kane, et al., Los Angeles Superior Court case number BC 624918, consolidated with Torres v. Arben Kryeziu a/k/a Arben Kane, et al., Los Angeles Superior Court case number BC 629838”, Any such request for exclusion must be signed and submitted by you, as the beneficial owner, under penalty of perjury. You must send your exclusion request, postmarked no later than September 25, 2018, to the Claims Administrator at the following address:

Code Rebel Auditor Securities Litigation
c/o Strategic Claims Services
600 N. Jackson St., Ste. 205
P.O. Box 230
Media, PA 19063

You cannot exclude yourself by telephone or by e-mail.

If you properly exclude yourself, you will not receive a payment from the Net Settlement Fund, you cannot object to the Settlement, and you will not be legally bound by the judgment in this case.

12. If I do not exclude myself, can I sue the Settling Defendant or the other Released Parties for the same thing later?

No. Unless you followed the procedure outlined in the Notice to exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue the Settling Defendant or other Released Parties for the claims being released in this Settlement. If you have a pending lawsuit related to any Released Claims, speak to your lawyer in that case immediately, since you must exclude yourself from this Settlement Class to continue your own lawsuit.

13. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Rosen Law Firm, P.A. and Wolf, Haldenstein, Adler, Freeman & Herz, LLP are Counsel representing you and the other Settlement Class Members. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense. Contact information for The Rosen Law Firm, P.A. and Wolf, Haldenstein, Adler, Freeman & Herz, LLP is provided below.

14. How will the lawyers be paid?

Plaintiffs' Counsel have expended considerable time litigating this action on a contingent fee basis, and have paid for the expenses of the case themselves. They have not been paid attorneys' fees or reimbursed for their expenses in advance of this Settlement. Plaintiffs' Counsel have done so with the expectation that, if they are successful in recovering money for the Settlement Class, they will receive attorneys' fees and be reimbursed for their litigation expenses from the Settlement Fund, as is customary in this type of litigation. Plaintiffs' Counsel will not receive attorneys' fees or be reimbursed for their litigation expenses except from the Settlement Fund. Therefore, Plaintiffs' Counsel will file a motion asking the Court at the Settlement Hearing to make an award of attorneys' fees in an amount not to exceed thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) of the Class Settlement Amount or $138,333.33, reimbursement of reasonable litigation expenses not to exceed $30,000 and an award to Plaintiffs in an amount not to exceed $2,000 in total, or $1,000 each. The Court may award less than these amounts. Any amounts awarded by the Court will come out of the Settlement Fund. Any division of fees will be in proportion to the amount of work done by each firm.

15. How do I tell the Court that I do not like the Settlement?

You can tell the Court you do not agree with the Settlement, any part of the Settlement, Plaintiffs' Counsel's motion for attorneys' fees and expenses and application for an award to Plaintiffs, and that you think the Court should not approve the Settlement, by mailing a letter stating that you object to the Settlement in the matter of Healy v. Arben Kryeziu a/k/a Arben Kane, et al., Los Angeles Superior Court case number BC 624918, consolidated with Torres v. Arben Kryeziu a/k/a Arben Kane, et al., Los Angeles Superior Court case number BC 629838. Be sure to include (1) your name, address, and telephone number, (2) all grounds for the objection, including any legal support known to you or your counsel, and (3) the name, address and telephone number of all counsel, if any, who represent you, including your former or current counsel who may be entitled to compensation in connection with the objection. Send the objection, postmarked no later than September 25, 2018, to the address below:

Code Rebel Auditor Securities Litigation

info@strategicclaims.net

16. What is the difference between objecting and requesting exclusion?

Objecting is simply telling the Court you do not like something about the Settlement or some portion thereof. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Requesting exclusion is telling the Court you do not want to be part of the Settlement Class and Settlement. If you exclude yourself, you cannot object to the Settlement because it no longer concerns you. If you stay in the Settlement Class and object, but your objection is overruled, you will not be allowed a second opportunity to exclude yourself.

17. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement?

The Court will hold a Fairness Hearing on October 26, 2018, at 9:00 a.m., in Department 6 of the Los Angeles Superior Court, Spring Street Courthouse, 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012.

At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and whether to approve the Settlement. If there are objections, the Court will consider them, and the Court will listen to people who have asked to speak at the hearing. The Court may also decide how much to pay Plaintiffs' Counsel for attorneys' fees and expenses and how much to award Plaintiffs.

18. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Plaintiffs' Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. However, you are welcome to attend at your own expense. If you send an objection, you do not have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you mail your written objection on time, the Court will consider it.

19. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you do nothing, you will not receive a payment from the Settlement. However, unless you exclude yourself, you will not be able to start a lawsuit, continue with a lawsuit, or be part of any other lawsuit against Settling Defendant or the Released Parties about the Released Claims (as defined in the Agreement) ever again.
