

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

ANDREW MEYER, Individually and on behalf of all other similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

CONCORDIA INTERNATIONAL CORP.,
MARK THOMPSON, and ADRIAN DE
SALDANHA,

Defendants.

Case No. 1:16-cv-06467 (RMB)

NOTICE OF PENDENCY AND PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OF CLASS ACTION

If you purchased or otherwise acquired the securities of Concordia International Corp. (“Concordia”) on a United States Exchange (shares purchased on a Canadian exchange are ineligible for compensation from the Settlement) during the period from January 6, 2016 through August 12, 2016, both dates inclusive (the “Settlement Class Period”), you could get a payment from a proposed class action settlement (the “Settlement”).

Under law, a federal court has authorized this Notice. This is not attorney advertising.

- If approved by the Court, the Settlement will provide $9,250,000.00 (Nine Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand U.S. Dollars) gross, plus interest as it accrues, minus attorneys’ fees, costs, administrative expenses, and net of any taxes on interest, to pay claims of investors who purchased Concordia securities during the Settlement Class Period.
- The Settlement represents an estimated average recovery of $0.585 per damaged share of Concordia securities for the approximately 15.8 million shares damaged during the Settlement Class Period. This is not an estimate of the actual recovery per share you should expect. Your actual recovery will depend on the aggregate losses of all Settlement Class Members, the date(s) you purchased and sold Concordia securities, and the total number of claims filed.
- Attorneys for Lead Plaintiff (“Lead Counsel”) intend to ask the Court to award them fees of up to thirty percent (30%) of the Settlement Amount or two million seven hundred seventy five thousand ($2,775,000), reimbursement of litigation expenses of no more than $385,000, and an award to the Lead Plaintiff for his service to the Settlement Class of $5,000. Collectively, the attorneys’ fees, expenses, and award to Lead Plaintiff are estimated to average $0.20 per damaged share. If approved by the Court, these amounts will be paid from the Settlement Fund.
- The approximate recovery, after deduction of attorneys’ fees, expenses, and award to Lead Plaintiff if approved by the Court, is an average of $0.385 per damaged share of Concordia securities. This estimate is based on the assumptions set forth in the preceding paragraph. Your actual recovery, if any, will depend on the aggregate losses of all Settlement Class Members, the date(s) you purchased and sold Concordia securities, the purchase and sales prices, and the total number and amount of claims filed.
- The Settlement resolves the Action concerning whether Defendants violated federal securities laws by allegedly making misrepresentations and/or omissions of material fact in certain filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and to the investing public concerning (i) Concordia’s promotional campaign related to its drug Donnatal® and (ii) Donnatal®’s insurance reimbursement status. Defendants have denied and continue to deny each, any and all allegations of wrongdoing, fault, liability or damage whatsoever asserted by Lead Plaintiff. Defendants have also denied, inter alia, the allegations that Lead Plaintiff or the Settlement Class have suffered damages or that Lead Plaintiff or the Settlement Class were harmed by the conduct alleged in the Action. Defendants continue to believe the claims asserted against them in the Action are without merit.

- Your legal rights will be affected whether you act or do not act. If you do not act, you may permanently forfeit your right to recover on this claim. Therefore, you should read this Notice carefully.

DEFINITIONS

All capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the same meanings as set forth in the Stipulation And Agreement of Settlement, dated December 20, 2018 (“Stipulation”).

COMMON QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS CONCERNING THE SETTLEMENT

1. Why did I get this Notice?

You or someone in your family may have acquired Concordia securities between January 6, 2016 through August 12, 2016, both dates inclusive.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

The case is known as Meyer v. Concordia International Corp., et al., 1:16-cv-06467 (S.D.N.Y.) (“Action”). The Court in charge of the case is the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York.

The Action involves allegations that Defendants violated federal securities laws by making material misrepresentations or omissions concerning (i) the expanded sales force and promotional campaign for Concordia’s lead drug, Donnatal®, and (ii) Donnatal®’s insurance reimbursement status. The Amended Class Action Complaint for Violations of the Federal Securities Laws (the “Complaint”) alleges that the misstatements and/or omissions artificially inflated the price of Concordia securities, and that the share prices dropped in response to certain subsequent disclosures, revealing the truth. Defendants have denied and continue to deny each, any and all allegations of wrongdoing, fault, liability or damage whatsoever asserted in the Action. The Settlement shall in no event be construed as, or deemed to be evidence of, liability, fault, wrongdoing, injury or damages, or of any wrongful conduct, acts or omissions on the part of any of the Released Parties, or of any infirmity of any defense, or of any damages to the Lead Plaintiff or any other Settlement Class Member. The Settlement resolves all of the claims in the Action, as well as certain other claims or potential claims, whether known or unknown.

3. Why is this a class action?

In a class action, one or more persons and/or entities, called representative plaintiffs, sue on behalf of all persons and/or entities who have similar claims. All of these persons and/or entities are referred to collectively as a class, and these individual persons and/or entities are known as class representatives. One court resolves all of the issues for all class members, except for those class members who exclude themselves from the class.

4. Why is there a Settlement?

Lead Plaintiff and Defendants do not agree regarding the merits of Lead Plaintiff’s allegations and Defendants’ defenses with respect to liability or the average amount of damages per share, if any, that would be recoverable if Lead Plaintiff was to prevail at trial on each claim. The issues on which Lead Plaintiff and the Defendants disagree include: (1) whether the challenged statements and/or omissions were materially false or misleading or otherwise actionable under federal securities law; (2) whether the Defendants acted with scienter; (3) whether the alleged disclosures were corrective disclosures; (4) the causes of the loss in the value of the securities; and (5) the amount of alleged damages, if any, that could be recovered at trial.

This matter has not gone to trial and the Court has not decided in favor of either Lead Plaintiff or any of the Defendants. Instead, Lead Plaintiff and Defendants have agreed to settle the case. Lead Plaintiff and Lead Counsel believe the Settlement is best for all Settlement Class Members because of the risks associated with continued litigation and the nature of the defenses raised by the Defendants. Among the reasons that Lead Plaintiff and Lead Counsel believe the Settlement is fair is the fact that there is uncertainty about whether they will be able to prove that any challenged statement and/or omission was false or misleading, that the alleged misstatements and omissions actually caused the Settlement Class any damages, and the amount of damages, if any.

Even if Lead Plaintiff was to win at trial, and also prevail on any appeal, Lead Plaintiff might not be able to collect some, or all, of any judgment they are awarded. Moreover, while litigation of this type is usually expensive, it appears that, even if Lead Plaintiff's allegations were found to be true, the total amount of damages to which Settlement Class Members would be entitled could be substantially reduced.

5. How do I know if I am part of the Settlement?

The Settlement Class consists of those persons or entities who purchased the securities of Concordia International Corp. on a United States Exchange (shares purchased on a Canadian exchange are ineligible for compensation from the Settlement) during the period from January 6, 2016 through August 12, 2016, both dates inclusive. Excluded from the Settlement Class are all Defendants, Released Parties, and Settlement Class Members who opt-out of the Settlement, and persons who have no compensable damages.

6. Are there exceptions to being included?

Yes. Excluded from the Settlement Class are (i) Opt-Outs, i.e., those Persons who timely and validly request exclusion from the Settlement Class, (ii) Defendants, the present and former officers and directors of Concordia, and any subsidiary thereof, and the immediate family members, legal representatives, heirs, successors or assigns of such excluded persons and any entity in which any excluded Person has or had a controlling interest, and (iii) those Persons who suffered no compensable damages during the Settlement Class Period or whose loss was not caused by the alleged fraud.

7. I am still not sure whether I am included.

If you are still not sure whether you are included, you can ask for free help. For more information, you can contact the Claims Administrator, Strategic Claims Services, by phone, toll free, at (866) 274-4004 or by facsimile at (610) 565-7985, visit the website www.strategicclaims.net, or fill out and return the Proof of Claim and Release Form described in Question 9, to see if you qualify.

8. What does the Settlement provide?

a. What is the settlement fund?

The proposed Settlement provides for Defendants' insurers to pay nine million two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($9,250,000) into a settlement fund (the "Settlement Fund"). The Settlement is subject to Court approval. Also, subject to the Court's approval, a portion of the Settlement Fund will be used to pay attorneys' fees and reasonable litigation expenses to Lead Counsel and any award to Lead Plaintiff. A portion of the Settlement Fund also will be used to pay taxes due on interest earned by the Settlement Fund, if necessary, and the costs of the claims administration, including the costs of printing and mailing this Notice and the costs of publishing notice. After the foregoing deductions from the Settlement Fund have been made, the amount remaining (the “Net Settlement Fund”) will be distributed to Settlement Class Members who submit timely, valid claims, according to the Plan of Allocation to be approved by the Court.

b. What can I expect to receive under the proposed Settlement?

Your share of the Net Settlement Fund will or may depend on: (i) the number of claims filed; (ii) the dates you purchased and sold Concordia securities; (iii) the prices of your purchases and sales; (iv) the amount of administrative costs, including the costs of notice; and (v) the amount awarded by the Court to Lead Counsel for attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses and to Lead Plaintiff.

The Claims Administrator will determine each Settlement Class Member’s pro rata share of the Net Settlement Fund based upon each Settlement Class Member’s valid “Recognized Loss.” The Recognized Loss Formula is not intended to be an estimate of the amount that a Settlement Class Member might have been able to recover after trial; it also is not an estimate of the amount that will be paid to Settlement Class Members pursuant to the Settlement. The Recognized Loss Formula is the basis upon which the Net Settlement Fund will be proportionately allocated to the Settlement Class Members with valid claims.

The Net Settlement Fund will be distributed to Settlement Class Members who submit a Proof of Claim and Release Form and whose claims for recovery are allowed by the Claims Administrator pursuant to the terms of the Stipulation or by order of the Court under the below Plan of Allocation (“Authorized Claimants”), which reflects Lead Plaintiff’s contention that because of the alleged misrepresentations and/or omissions made by Defendants, the price of Concordia securities was artificially inflated during the relevant period and that certain subsequent disclosures caused changes in the inflated price of Concordia securities. Defendants have denied and continue to deny these allegations and any and all allegations of wrongdoing, fault, liability or damage whatsoever asserted in the Action.

PROPOSED PLAN OF ALLOCATION OF THE NET SETTLEMENT FUND

The Plan of Allocation is a matter separate and apart from the fairness and adequacy of the Settlement, and any decision by the Court concerning the Plan of Allocation shall not affect the validity or finality of the proposed Settlement. The Court may approve the Plan of Allocation with or without modifications agreed to among the parties, or another plan of allocation, without further notice to Settlement Class Members. Any orders regarding a modification of the Plan of Allocation will be posted to the Claims Administrator’s website, www.strategicclaims.net.

The Claims Administrator shall determine each Authorized Claimant’s pro rata share of the Net Settlement Fund based upon each Authorized Claimant’s Recognized Loss. Please Note: The Recognized Loss formula, set forth below, is not intended to be an estimate of the amount of what a Settlement Class Member might have been able to recover after a trial, nor is it an estimate of the amount that will be paid to Authorized Claimants pursuant to the Settlement. The Recognized Loss formula is the basis upon which the Net Settlement Fund will be proportionately allocated to the Authorized Claimants. To the extent there are sufficient funds remaining in the Net Settlement Fund, each Authorized Claimant will receive an amount equal to the Authorized Claimant’s Recognized Loss. If, however, Net Settlement Fund is not sufficient to permit payment of the total Recognized Loss of each Authorized Claimant, then each Authorized Claimant shall be paid the percentage of the Net Settlement Fund that each Authorized Claimant's Recognized Loss bears to the total Recognized Losses of all Authorized Claimants (i.e., "pro rata share"). Payment in this manner shall be deemed conclusive against all Authorized Claimants. No distribution will be made on a claim where the potential distribution amount is less than ten dollars ($10.00) in cash.

If any of the Net Settlement Fund remains by reason of uncashed checks, or otherwise, after the Claims Administrator has made reasonable and diligent efforts to have Authorized Claimants who are entitled to participate in the distribution of the Net Settlement Fund cash their distribution checks, then any balance remaining in the Net Settlement Fund six (6) months after the initial distribution of such funds shall be used: (i) first, to pay any amounts mistakenly omitted from the initial distribution to Authorized Claimants or to pay any late, but otherwise valid and fully documented claims received after the cut-off date used to make the initial distribution, provided that such distributions to any late post-distribution claimants meet all of the other criteria for inclusion in the initial distribution, including the $10.00 minimum check amount set forth in the Notice; (ii) second, to pay any additional Notice and Administrative Expenses incurred in administering the Settlement; and (iii) finally, to make a second distribution to Authorized Claimants who cashed their checks from the initial distribution and who would receive at least $10.00 from such second distribution, after payment of the estimated costs or fees to be incurred in administering the Net Settlement Fund and in making this second distribution, if such second distribution is economically feasible. If six (6) months after such second distribution, if undertaken, or if such second distribution is not undertaken, any funds shall remain in the Net Settlement Fund after the Claims Administrator has made reasonable and diligent efforts to have Authorized Claimants who are entitled to participate in this Settlement cash their checks, the parties shall apply to the Court recommending how to distribute the remaining money to best serve the interests of the Class.

THE BASIS FOR CALCULATING YOUR RECOGNIZED LOSS:

Each Authorized Claimant shall be allocated a pro rata share of the Net Settlement Fund based on his, her or its Recognized Loss as compared to the total Recognized Losses of all Authorized Claimants, depending on the date of purchase.

Recognized Loss for the company's securities purchased or otherwise acquired during the Settlement Class Period will be calculated as follows:

1. For shares purchased and sold during the period January 6, 2016 through August 11, 2016, inclusive, the Recognized Loss shall be zero.
2. For shares purchased on August 12, 2016 and retained through the close of trading on August 12, 2016, the Recognized Loss shall be 20% of the lesser of: (1) the purchase price per share minus $10.13; or (2) $2.89 per share.
3. For shares purchased on August 12, 2016 and sold on August 12, 2016, the Recognized Loss shall be 20% of the lesser of (1) the purchase price minus the sale price; or (2) $2.89 per share.
4. For shares purchased on August 13, 2016 and thereafter, the Recognized Loss shall be zero.

5. For shares purchased during the period January 6, 2016 through May 12, 2016, inclusive, and retained as of the close of trading on August 12, 2016, the Recognized Loss will be $2.44 per share;
6. For shares purchased during the period May 13, 2016 through August 11, 2016, inclusive, and retained as of the close of trading on August 12, 2016, the Recognized Loss will be $4.88 per share.

For purposes of calculating your Recognized Loss, the date of purchase, acquisition or sale is the “contract” or “trade” date and not the “settlement” or “payment” date. The receipt or grant by gift, inheritance or operation of law of the Company shares shall not be deemed a purchase, acquisition, or sale of shares for the calculation of an Authorized Claimant’s Recognized Loss. The covering purchase of a short sale is not an eligible purchase.

For purposes of calculating your Recognized Loss, all purchases, acquisitions, and sales shall be matched on a First In First Out (“FIFO”) basis in chronological order. Therefore, on the Proof of Claim and Release Form enclosed with this Notice, you must provide all of your purchases, acquisitions, and sales of shares of Concordia shares during the period January 6, 2016 through and including August 12, 2016.

Payment pursuant to the Plan of Allocation approved by the Court shall be conclusive against all Authorized Claimants. No person shall have any claim against Defendants, Defendants’ Counsel, Lead Plaintiff, Lead Counsel or the Claims Administrator or other agent designated by Lead Counsel based on the distributions made substantially in accordance with the Stipulation and the Settlement contained therein, the Plan of Allocation, or further orders of the Court. Each claimant shall be deemed to have submitted to the jurisdiction of the Court with respect to the claimant’s Claim Form. All persons involved in the review, verification, calculation, tabulation, or any other aspect of the processing of the claims submitted in connection with the Settlement, or otherwise involved in the administration or taxation of the Settlement Fund or the Net Settlement Fund shall be released and discharged from any and all claims arising out of such involvement, and all Settlement Class Members, whether or not they are to receive payment from the Net Settlement Fund, will be barred from making any further claim against the Net Settlement Fund beyond the amount allocated to them as provided in any distribution orders entered by the Court.

All Class Members whose claims are not approved by the Court will be barred from participating in distributions from the Net Settlement Fund, but otherwise shall be bound by all of the terms of the Settlement, including the terms of the Order and Final Judgment to be entered in the Action and will be barred from bringing any Claims against Defendants or any of Settling Defendants’ Released Parties, including Unknown Claims (as those terms are defined in the Stipulation, which is available on the Internet at www.strategicclaims.net, or through the mail upon request to the Claims Administrator). The Plan of Allocation is subject to Court approval and may be modified by the Court.

9. How can I get a payment?

To qualify for a payment, you must send in a form entitled “Proof of Claim and Release Form,” also called the “Claim Form.” This Proof of Claim and Release Form is attached to this Notice. You may also obtain a Proof of Claim and Release Form on the Internet at www.strategicclaims.net. Read the instructions carefully, fill out the form, sign it in the location indicated, and mail the claim form together with all documentation requested in the form, postmarked no later than May 29, 2019, to the Claims Administrator:

Concordia International Corp. Litigation
c/o Strategic Claims Services
P.O. Box 230
600 N. Jackson St., Ste. 205
Media, PA 19063
Tel.: 866-274-4004
Fax: 610-565-7985
info@strategicclaims.net

The Claims Administrator will process your claim and determine whether you are an Authorized Claimant.

10. What am I giving up to get a payment or stay in the Class?

Unless you exclude yourself from the Settlement Class by the June 4, 2019 deadline, you will remain a member of the Settlement Class and will be bound by the release of claims against the Defendants and other Released Parties if the Settlement is approved. That means you and all other Settlement Class Members and each of their respective parent entities, associates, affiliates, subsidiaries, predecessors, successors, assigns, attorneys, immediate family members, heirs, representatives, administrators, executors, devisees, legatees, and estates will release (agreeing never to sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit) as against the Defendants and other Released Parties, any and all claims which arise out of, are based upon or relate in any way to the purchase or acquisition of Concordia securities during the Settlement Class Period. It means that all of the Court's orders will apply to you and legally bind you. That means you will accept a share of the Net Settlement Fund as sole compensation for any losses you suffered in the purchase, acquisitions, sale or ownership of Concordia securities during the Settlement Class Period. The specific terms of the release are included in the Stipulation.

11. How do I get out of the Settlement?

If you do not want to receive a payment from this Settlement, and you want to keep any right you may have to sue or continue to sue Defendants or other Released Parties on your own about the claims being released in this Settlement, then you must take steps to exclude yourself from the Settlement. To exclude yourself from the Settlement, you must mail a letter that (A) clearly indicates your name, address, phone number and e-mail contact information (if any) and states that you "request to be excluded from the Settlement Class in Meyer v. Concordia International Corp., et al., 1:16-cv-06467 (S.D.N.Y.)," (B) states the date, number of common shares and dollar amount of each Concordia securities purchase or acquisition during the Settlement Class Period, and any sale transactions, and (C) the number of shares of Concordia securities held by you as of the close of trading on August 12, 2016. In order to be valid, such request for exclusion must be submitted with documentary proof: (i) of each purchase and, if applicable, sale transaction of Concordia securities during the Settlement Class Period and (ii) demonstrating your status as a beneficial owner of the Concordia securities. Any such request for exclusion must be signed and submitted by you, as the beneficial owner, under penalty of perjury. You must mail your exclusion request, to be received no later than June 4, 2019, to the Claims Administrator at the following address:

Concordia International Corp. Litigation
c/o Strategic Claims Services
P.O. Box 230
600 N. Jackson St., Ste. 205
Media, PA 19063

You cannot exclude yourself by telephone or by e-mail.

If you properly exclude yourself, you will not receive a payment from the Net Settlement Fund, you cannot object to the Settlement, and you will not be legally bound by the judgment in this case.

12. If I do not exclude myself, can I sue the Defendants or the other Released Parties for the same thing later?

No. Unless you followed the procedure outlined in the Notice to exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue the Defendants or other Released Parties for the claims being released in this Settlement. If you have a pending lawsuit related to any Released Claims, speak to your lawyer in that case immediately, since you must exclude yourself from this Settlement Class to continue your own lawsuit.

13. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Court appointed The Rosen Law Firm, P.A. as Lead Counsel, to represent you and the other Settlement Class Members. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense. Contact information for The Rosen Law Firm, P.A. is provided above.

14. How will the lawyers be paid?

Lead Counsel has expended considerable time litigating this action on a contingent fee basis, and have paid for the expenses of the case themselves. They have not been paid attorneys' fees or reimbursed for their expenses in advance of this Settlement. Lead Counsel has done so with the expectation that, if they are successful in recovering money for the Settlement Class, it will receive attorneys' fees and be reimbursed for their litigation expenses from the Settlement Fund, as is customary in this type of litigation. Lead Counsel will not receive attorneys' fees or be reimbursed for its litigation expenses except from the Settlement Fund. Therefore, Lead Counsel will file a motion asking the Court at the Settlement Hearing to make an award of attorneys' fees in an amount not to exceed 30% of the Settlement or $2,775,000, for reimbursement of reasonable litigation expenses not to exceed $385,000 and an award to Lead Plaintiff of $5,000 in total. The Court may award less than these amounts. Any amounts awarded by the Court will come out of the Settlement Fund.

15. How do I tell the Court that I do not like the Settlement?

You can tell the Court you do not agree with the Settlement, any part of the Settlement, Lead Counsel's motion for attorneys' fees and expenses and application for an award to Lead Plaintiff, and that you think the Court should not approve the Settlement, by mailing a letter stating that you object to the Settlement in the matter of Meyer v. Concordia International Corp., et al., 1:16-cv-06467 (S.D.N.Y.). Be sure to include (1) your name, address, and telephone number, (2) a list of all purchases and sales of Concordia securities during the Settlement Class Period in order to show membership in the Settlement Class, (3) all grounds for the objection, including any legal support known to you or your counsel, (4) the name, address and telephone number of all counsel, if any, who represent you, including your former or current counsel who may be entitled to compensation in connection with the objection, and (5) the number of times you and/or your counsel has filed an objection to a class action settlement in the last five years, the nature of each such objection in each case, the jurisdiction in each case, and the name of the issuer of the security or seller of the product or service at issue in each case. Attendance at the Settlement Hearing is not necessary. Objectors wishing to be heard orally at the Settlement Hearing are required to indicate in their written objection (or in a separate writing that is submitted in accordance with the deadline and after instruction pertinent to the submission of a written objection) that they intend to appear at the Settlement Hearing and identify any witnesses they may call to testify or exhibits they intend to introduce into evidence at the Settlement Hearing. Be sure to serve copies of any objections, papers and briefs to each of the addresses listed below, to be received no later than May 28, 2019:

16. What is the difference between objecting and requesting exclusion?

Objecting is simply telling the Court you do not like something about the Settlement or some portion thereof. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Requesting exclusion is telling the Court you do not want to be part of the Settlement Class and Settlement. If you exclude yourself, you cannot object to the Settlement because it no longer concerns you. If you stay in the Settlement Class and object, but your objection is overruled, you will not be allowed a second opportunity to exclude yourself.

17. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement?

The Court will hold a Settlement Hearing on June 25, 2019, at 11:00 a.m., at the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, 500 Pearl Street, Court Room 17B, New York, New York 10007-1312.

At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and whether to approve the Settlement. If there are objections, the Court will consider them, and the Court will listen to people who have asked to speak at the hearing. The Court may also decide how much to pay Lead Counsel for attorneys’ fees and expenses and how much to award Lead Plaintiff.

18. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Lead Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. However, you are welcome to attend at your own expense. If you send an objection, you do not have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you mail your written objection on time, the Court will consider it.

19. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you do nothing, you will not receive a payment from the Settlement. However, unless you exclude yourself, you will not be able to start a lawsuit, continue with a lawsuit, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendants or the Released Parties about the Released Claims (as defined in the Stipulation) ever again.

DATED: FEBRUARY 28, 2019

BY ORDER OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK
