

1 1. Preliminary Certification of the Settlement Class. In accordance with the 2 Settlement Agreement, and pursuant to Rules 23(a) and (b)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil 3 Procedure, this Court hereby conditionally certifies, for settlement purposes only, the following 4 class (“Settlement Class”):

5 All participants and beneficiaries of the Plan, at any time during the Class Period 6 (August 14, 2014, through July 1, 2020), including any beneficiary of a deceased 7 person who was a participant in the Plan at any time during the Class Period, and 8 any Alternate Payees, in the case of a person subject to a Qualified Domestic 9 Relations Order (“QDRO”) who was a participant in the Plan at any time during 10 the Class Period. The Class shall exclude all Defendants, including the individual 11 members of the Board of Directors of LinkedIn Corporation, and the LinkedIn 12 Corporation 401(k) Committee, and their beneficiaries, during the Class Period.

13 2. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, and for settlement purposes only, the 14 Court preliminarily finds that:

15 a. as required by FED. R. CIV. P. 23(a)(1), the Settlement Class is 16 ascertainable from records kept with respect to the Plan and from other objective criteria, and the 17 Settlement Class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable;

18 b. as required by FED. R. CIV. P. 23(a)(2), there are one or more questions 19 of law and/or fact common to the Settlement Class;

20 c. as required by FED. R. CIV. P. 23(a)(3), the claims of the Class
21 Representatives are typical of the claims of the Settlement Class for which the Class 22 Representatives seek certification;

23 d. as required by FED. R. CIV. P. 23(a)(4), the Class Representatives will 24 fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Settlement Class in that (i) the interests of the 25 Class Representatives and the nature of the alleged claims are consistent with those of the 26 Settlement Class members; and (ii) there appear to be no conflicts between or among the Class 27 Representatives and the Settlement Class;

28 e. as required by FED. R. CIV. P. 23(b)(1), the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the Settlement Class would create a risk of: (i) inconsistent or varying adjudications as to individual Settlement Class members that would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the parties opposing the claims asserted in the Class

1 Action; or (ii) adjudications as to individual Settlement Class members that, as a practical matter, 2 would be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the individual 3 adjudications, or substantially impair or impede the ability of such persons to protect their 4 interests;

5 f. as required by FED. R. CIV. P. 23(g), Class Counsel are capable of fairly 6 and adequately representing the interests of the Settlement Class, and Class Counsel.

7 Specifically, the Court preliminarily finds that Class Counsel: (i) have done appropriate work 8 identifying or investigating potential claims in the Class Action; (ii) are experienced in handling 9 class actions; and (iii) have committed the necessary resources to represent the Settlement Class; 10 and

11 3. The Court preliminary appoints Douglass G. Bailey, Jason J. Hayes, and 12 Marianne Robinson as Class Representatives for the Settlement Class and Miller Shah LLP and 13 Capozzi Adler, P.C. as Class Counsel for the Settlement Class.

14 4. Preliminary Approval of Proposed Settlement. The Settlement Agreement is 15 hereby preliminarily approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Court preliminarily finds 16 that:

17 a. the Settlement was negotiated vigorously and at arm's-length, under the 18 auspices of an experienced, neutral mediator, by Defense Counsel on the one hand, and by Class 19 Counsel on behalf of the Class Representatives and the Settlement Class on the other hand;

20 b. the Class Representatives and Class Counsel had sufficient information to 21 evaluate the settlement value of the Class Action and have concluded that the Settlement is fair, 22 reasonable, and adequate;

23 c. if the Settlement had not been achieved, the Class Representatives and the 24 Settlement Class faced the expense, risk, and uncertainty of protracted litigation;

25 d. the amount of the Settlement—six million seven hundred fifty thousand 26 dollars ($6,750,000)—is fair, reasonable, and adequate, taking into account the costs, risks, and 27 delay of litigation, trial, and appeal. The method of distributing the Net Settlement Amount is 28 efficient, relying substantially on records maintained by and/or provided by Plan's and the

1 Microsoft Corporation Savings Plus 401(k) Plan’s recordkeeper, requiring no filing of claims for 2 Participants, Beneficiaries, and Alternate Payees with Active Accounts, and requiring only a 3 modest Former Participant Claim Form for Former Participants, Beneficiaries, and Alternate 4 Payees without Active Accounts. The Settlement terms related to Attorneys’ Fees and Expenses, 5 as well as Case Contribution Awards to the Class Representatives, do not raise any questions
6 about the fairness of the Settlement, and there are no agreements, apart from the Settlement, 7 required to be considered under FED. R. CIV. P 23(e)(2)(C)(iv). The Gross Settlement Amount 8 is within the range of settlement values obtained in similar cases;

9 e. at all times, the Class Representatives and Class Counsel have acted 10 independently of the Defendants and in the interest of the Settlement Class; and 11 f. the proposed Plan of Allocation is fair, reasonable, and adequate, 12 distributing the Net Settlement Account on a pro rata basis based on account balances in the 13 Plan during the Class Period.

14 5. Establishment of Qualified Settlement Fund. A common fund is agreed to by 15 the Parties in the Settlement Agreement and is hereby established and shall be known as the 16 “Settlement Fund.” The Settlement Fund shall be a “qualified settlement fund” within the 17 meaning of Treasury Regulations § 1.468B-1(a) promulgated under Section 468B of the Internal 18 Revenue Code. The Settlement Fund shall be funded and administered in accordance with the 19 terms of the Settlement Agreement. Defendants shall have no withholding, reporting or tax 20 reporting responsibilities with regard to the Settlement Fund or its distribution, except as 21 otherwise specifically identified in the Settlement Agreement. Moreover, Defendants shall have 22 no liability, obligation, or responsibility for administration of the Settlement Fund or the 23 disbursement of any monies from the Settlement Fund except for: (1) their obligation to cause 24 the Gross Settlement Amount to be paid; and (2) their agreement to cooperate in facilitating the 25 provision of information that is necessary for Settlement administration as set forth in the 26 Settlement Agreement. The Settlement Administrator may make disbursements out of the 27 Settlement Fund only in accordance with this Preliminary Approval Order or any additional 28 orders issued by the Court. The Settlement Fund shall expire after the Settlement Administrator

1 distributes all of the assets of the Settlement Fund in accordance with the Settlement Agreement; 2 provided, however, that the Settlement Fund shall not terminate until its liability for any and all 3 government fees, fines, taxes, charges, and excises of any kind, including income taxes, and any 4 interest, penalties, or additions to such amounts are, in the Settlement Administrator's sole 5 discretion, finally determined and all such amounts have been paid by the Settlement Fund. The 6 Court and the Settlement Administrator recognize that there will be tax payments and 7 withholding and reporting requirements in connection with the administration of the Settlement 8 Fund. The Settlement Administrator shall, in accordance with the Settlement Agreement, 9 determine, withhold, and pay over to the appropriate taxing authorities any taxes due with 10 respect to any distribution from the Settlement Fund and shall make and file with the appropriate 11 taxing authorities any reports or returns due with respect to any distributions from the Settlement 12 Fund. The Settlement Administrator also shall determine and pay any income taxes owing with 13 respect to the income earned by the Settlement Fund. Additionally, the Settlement Administrator 14 shall file returns and reports with the appropriate taxing authorities with respect to the payment 15 and withholding of taxes. The Settlement Administrator, in its discretion, may request 16 expedited review and decision by the IRS or the applicable state or local taxing authorities with 17 regard to the correctness of the returns filed for the Settlement Fund and shall establish reserves 18 to assure the availability of sufficient funds to meet the obligations of the Settlement Fund itself 19 and the Settlement Administrator as a fiduciary of the Settlement Fund. Reserves may be 20 established for taxes on the Settlement Fund or income on distributions. The Settlement 21 Administrator shall have all the necessary powers, and take all necessary ministerial steps, to 22 effectuate the terms of the Settlement Agreement, including the payment of all distributions.
23 Such powers include investing, allocating, and distributing the Settlement Fund, and in general 24 supervising the administration of the Settlement Agreement in accordance with its terms and this 25 Order. The Settlement Administrator shall keep detailed and accurate accounts of all 26 investments, receipts, disbursements, and other transactions of the Settlement Fund. All 27 accounts, books, and records relating to the Settlement Fund shall be open for reasonable 28 inspection by such persons or entities as the Court orders. Included in the Settlement

1 Administrator's records shall be complete information regarding actions taken with respect to the 2 award of any payments to any person, the nature and status of any payment from the Settlement 3 Fund, and other information which the Settlement Administrator considers relevant to showing 4 that the Settlement Fund is being administered, and awards are being made, in accordance with 5 the purpose of the Settlement Agreement, this Preliminary Approval Order, and any future orders 6 that the Court may find it necessary to issue.

7 6. Fairness Hearing. A hearing is scheduled for November 16, 2023, at 9:00 a.m., 8 (at least 140 days after the date the motion for entry of the Preliminary Approval Order is filed) 9 to make a final determination concerning, among other things:

- 10 • any objections from Class Members to the Settlement or any aspects of it;
- 11 • whether the Settlement merits final approval as fair, reasonable, and adequate;
- 12 • whether the Class Action should be dismissed with prejudice pursuant to the 13 terms of the Settlement;
- 14 • whether Class Counsel adequately represented the Settlement Class for purposes 15 of entering into and implementing the Settlement;
- 16 • whether the proposed Plan of Allocation should be finally approved; and
- 17 • whether Class Counsel's application(s) for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses and 18 Case Contribution Awards to the Class Representatives are fair and reasonable, 19 and should be approved.

20 7. Settlement Notice. The Court approves the form of the Settlement Notice
21 attached as Exhibit A to the Settlement Agreement and Former Participant Claim Form attached 22 as Exhibit A-1 to the Settlement Agreement. The Court finds that such form of notice fairly and 23 adequately: (a) describes the terms and effects of the Settlement Agreement, the Settlement, and 24 the Plan of Allocation; (b) notifies Former Participants, Beneficiaries, and Alternate Payees
25 without Active Accounts of how to submit a claim; (c) notifies the Settlement Class that Class 26 Counsel will seek Attorneys' Fees and Expenses from the Settlement Fund, payment of the costs 27 of administering the Settlement out of the Settlement Fund, and Case Contribution Awards for 28 the Class Representatives for their services in such capacity; (d) gives notice to the Settlement

1 Class of the time and place of the Fairness Hearing; and (e) describes how the recipients of the 2 Notice may object to any of the relief requested.

3 8. Settlement Administrator. The Court hereby approves the appointment of 4 Strategic Claims Services as the Settlement Administrator for the Settlement. The Court directs 5 that the Settlement Administrator shall:

7 Approval Order), cause the Settlement Notice and Former Participant Claim 8 Form, with such non-substantive modifications thereto as may be agreed upon by 9 the Parties, to be provided by electronic mail (if available) or first-class mail, 10 postage prepaid, to the last known electronic mail address or last known mailing 11 address of each member of the Settlement Class who can be identified through 12 reasonable effort.
- 13 • The Settlement Administrator shall use commercially reasonable efforts to locate 14 any Class Member whose Settlement Notice and Former Participant Claim Form 15 is returned and re-send such documents one additional time. In addition, for each 16 Former Participant, Beneficiary, and Alternate Payee who has not returned the 17 Former Participant Claim Form within seventy-five (75) days of the entry of the 18 Preliminary Approval Order, on or before September 26, 2023, the Settlement 19 Administrator shall send within ten (10) days thereafter a post card by electronic 20 mail (if available) or first-class mail, postage prepaid, to such Class Members 21 notifying them again of the deadline by which to submit the Former Participant 22 Claim Form.
- 23 • By no later than August 28, 2023 (45 calendar days after entry of this Preliminary 24 Approval Order), cause the Settlement Notice to be published on the website 25 identified in the Settlement Notice, strategicclaims.net/LinkedIn401\(k\)), which 26 will also host and make available copies of all Settlement-related documents, 27 including the Settlement Agreement.

- The Court finds that the contents of the Settlement Notice and the process described herein and in the Settlement are the best notice practicable under the circumstances and satisfy the requirements of Rule 23(c) and due process.

An objection must include: (a) the full name, address, and telephone number of the objector; (b) a written statement of his, her, their, or its objection(s), specifying the reason(s), if any, for each such objection made, including any legal support and/or evidence that the objector wishes to bring to the Court's attention or introduce in support of the objection(s) and whether the objection is on behalf of the objector only, a portion of the Settlement Class, or the Settlement Class as a whole; (c) copies of any papers, brief, or other documents upon which the objection is based; (d) a list of all persons, if any, who will be called to testify in support of the objection; (e) a list of other cases in which the objector or the objector's counsel have appeared either as settlement objectors or as counsel for objectors in the previous five years; and (f) the objector's signature, even if represented by counsel.
