UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

TYLER HARDY, et al.,
Plaintiffs,
v.
EMBARK TECHNOLOGY, INC., et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 3:22-cv-02090-JSC

ORDER RE: PLAINTIFFS’ MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

Re: Dkt. Nos. 65, 81

Plaintiffs filed this putative securities class action alleging claims under Sections 11 and 15 of the Securities Act of 1933 and Sections 14(a) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 on behalf of individuals who purchased stock in Embark Technologies Inc., or its predecessor Northern Genesis Acquisition Corp. II. While Defendants’ motion to dismiss was pending, the parties reached an agreement to resolve Plaintiffs’ claims and Plaintiffs’ unopposed motion for preliminary approval of the class action settlement is now pending before the Court. (Dkt. No. 65.¹) The Court heard argument on Plaintiffs’ motion for preliminary approval on July 20, 2023 and ordered Plaintiffs to submit additional briefing in support of their motion. (Dkt. Nos. 74, 75.) Having carefully considered Plaintiffs’ motion, supplemental submission, and the relevant legal authority, and having the benefit of oral argument on July 20, and September 26, 2023, the Court GRANTS Plaintiffs’ motion for preliminary approval.

BACKGROUND

In April 2022, Plaintiff Tyler Hardy filed this putative securities class action against Embark Technology (hereafter “Embark”) and four of its current and prior officers. (Dkt. No. 1.)

1 Embark develops self-driving software solutions for the trucking industry. (Amended Complaint, 2 Dkt. No. 33 at ¶ 4.) Embark was previously a special purpose acquisition company called 3 Northern Genesis Acquisition Corp. II. (Id.) The complaint made claims under Sections 10(b)
4 and 20(a) of the Exchange Act, and Rule 10b-5. In July 2022, the Court granted Mr. Hardy’s 5 motion to be appointed as Lead Plaintiff and the Pomerantz Law Firm’s motion to be appointed as 6 Lead Counsel. (Dkt. Nos. 23, 24.)

7 Plaintiffs thereafter filed the now operative Amended Complaint adding Danny Rochefort 8 as a named plaintiff, adding four additional individual defendants, and revising their liability 9 theories and factual allegations. (Dkt. No. 33.) Plaintiff Hardy now pleads claims for: (1) 10 violation of Section 11 of the Securities Act (as to all defendants); and (2) violation of Section 15
11 of the Securities Act (as to the individual defendants). Plaintiff Rochefort pleads claims for: (1) 12 violation of Section 14(a) of the Exchange Act and SEC Rule 14a-9 (as to all defendants); and (2) 13 violation of Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act (as to the individual defendants). The gravamen of 14 Plaintiffs’ complaint is that Defendants made false and misleading statements because they 15 erroneously classified some redeemable shares as permanent equity for purposes of the June 2021
16 Financial Statements, and made false and misleading statements in the October 2021 Registration
17 Statement. While Defendants’ motions to dismiss were pending, the parties reached a classwide 18 settlement of Plaintiffs’ claims.

19 I. The Settlement Agreement²

20 A. The Settlement Class

21 The settlement calls for two classes: an Exchange Act class and a Securities Act class, 22 collectively referred to as the Settlement Class. The Exchange Act class is defined as 23 all persons and entities that beneficially owned and/or held the 24 Company’s common stock as of October 6, 2021, the record date, and 25 were eligible to vote at the Company’s November 9, 2021 special 26 meeting with respect to the Business Combination between the Company and privately held Legacy Embark, completed on or about November 10, 2021, and were damaged thereby.

27 _____
28 ² Following the initial preliminary approval hearing, the parties executed an amended stipulation and agreement of settlement. (Dkt. No. 82-1.) This Order refers to this document as the “Settlement Agreement.”

1 (Dkt. No. 82-1, the Amended Stipulation and Agreement of Settlement, at ¶ 1(cc)(i).) The 2 Exchange Act class period is defined as the period from October 6, 2021 through November 10, 3 2021. (Id.)

4 The Securities Act class is defined as

5 all persons and entities who purchased or otherwise acquired Embark 6 common stock pursuant or traceable to the July 2, 2021 registration 7 statement, including all amendments thereto, issued in connection 8 with the November 2021 Business Combination between the 9 Company and Legacy Embark, including shares of Embark common 10 stock purchased in the open market during the period November 11, 2021 through December 13, 2021, both dates inclusive, (the “Securities Act Class Period”) and were damaged thereby.

11 (Id. at ¶ 1(cc)(ii).)

12 B. Payment Terms

13 The Settlement Agreement requires Embark establish a Settlement Fund of $2.5 million in 14 an escrow account maintained by Huntington National Bank within 5 days of preliminary 15 approval. (Dkt. No. 82 -1 at ¶¶ 1(ii), (gg).) The parties have agreed to the following deductions 16 from the Settlement Fund: “(i) any taxes; (ii) any Notice and Administration Costs; and (iii) any 17 attorneys’ fees, litigation expenses, and awards of reasonable costs and expenses to Plaintiffs 18 awarded by the Court.” (Id. at ¶ 1(o).) The amount remaining after these deductions, the “Net 19 Settlement Amount,” will be divided among the Settlement Class Members in pro rata shares 20 “based on their respective alleged economic losses as a result of the alleged misconduct” pursuant 21 to the “Plan of Allocation.” (Dkt. No. 81 at 13.).

22 Plaintiffs’ supplemental motion for preliminary approval elaborates on the deductions from 23 the Settlement Fund to yield the Net Settlement Amount:

- 24 1. Attorneys’ fees up to $835,000 (33.4% of the Settlement Amount) (Dkt. No. 81 at 25 18);
- 26 2. Litigation expenses of up to $140,000 (Id. at 19);
- 27 3. Individual service awards of $2,500 for the Class Representatives (Id.);
- 28 4. Settlement Administration costs of an estimated $333,859 (Id. at 19-20); and
5. Taxes which includes “(i) all federal, state, and/or local taxes of any kind on any

1 income earned by the Settlement Fund; and (ii) the reasonable and necessary costs 2 and expenses incurred in connection with determining the amount of, and paying, 3 any taxes owed by the Net Settlement Fund (including, without limitation, the 4 reasonable and necessary costs and expenses of tax attorneys and accountants).”
 5 (Dkt. No. 82-1 at ¶ 1(II).) The Settlement Administrator, however, estimates no
 6 taxes will be paid out of the Settlement Fund. (Dkt. No. 82-20 at ¶ 4.)

7 C. Scope of Release

8 Any Settlement Class Member who does not submit a timely request for exclusion will 9 release:

10 all claims, rights, liabilities, demands, damages, losses, and causes of 11 action of every nature and description, including Unknown Claims, 12 whether contingent or absolute, mature or unmature, discoverable or 13 undiscoverable, liquidated or unliquidated, accrued or unaccrued, 14 including those that are concealed or hidden, regardless of legal or 15 equitable theory, whether arising under federal, state, common or 16 foreign law, whether direct or indirect, that Plaintiffs or any other 17 member(s) of the Settlement Class asserted or could have asserted in any forum that are based on, related to, or arising out of any claims, 18 allegations, statements, representations, omissions, facts, 19 transactions, occurrences or other matters that are or could have been 20 the subject of the Action, whether known or unknown, relating to or 21 arising from the purchase, acquisition, sale, disposition or holding of 22 Northern Genesis and/or Embark common stock during the Exchange 23 Act Class Period and/or the Securities Act Class Period.

(Dkt. No. 82-1 at ¶ 1(ee).)

18 D. Notice

19 After a competitive bidding process, Plaintiff selected Strategic Claims Services (SCS), as 20 the Settlement Administrator. (Dkt. No. 82 at ¶¶ 28-29.) SCS has extensive experience providing 21 notice in securities class action settlements and has worked with Plaintiffs’ counsel 26 times in the 22 last five years. (Id. at ¶ 31; Dkt. No. 82-20 at ¶ 2.)

23 According to SCS, there are two primary sources for identifying class members: (1) 24 through an issuer’s transfer agent, and (2) through nominees (brokerage firms, banks, “back-25 office” custodians, and other third parties). (Dkt. No. 82-20 at ¶ 7.) While some “Settlement 26 Class Members may be identified from records kept by Embark’s transfer agent, [i]n general ... a 27 transfer agent will only have the contact information for the small number of investors that held 28

1 their securities in their own names as ‘record holders,’ as well as ‘beneficial owners.’” (Id. ¶ 8.)
 2 Generally, those known to the transfer agent “make up less than 1% of an identified class in a 3 typical securities settlement.” (Id.) Defendants shall provide Plaintiffs’ counsel with any potential 4 Settlement Class investor records in their possession and SCS will mail and/or email each 5 potential Settlement Class Member notice and a proof of claim form. (Id. at ¶ 9.)

6 SCS estimates that the vast majority of potential Settlement Class Members will have 7 purchased, held and/or sold their Embark or Northern Genesis common stock through a Nominee.
 8 (Id. at ¶ 11.) SCS will use utilize its proprietary list of over 2,000 Nominees to mail or email the 9 Notice Packet and an explanatory cover letter to each Nominee. (Id. at ¶ 12.) SCS will also send 10 the Depository Trust Company (“DTC”) the notice packet for the DTC to publish on its Legal 11 Notice System (“LENS”), and will publish notice “in a national business publication such a 12 national business publication, such as Investor' Business Daily, and transmitted across the internet 13 using a national business newswire, such as the PR Newswire.” (Id. at ¶¶ 14, 16.)

14 SCS will also create a website for posting downloadable copies of the notice packet, claim 15 form, and other information about the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 15.)

16 E. Opt-Outs and Objections

17 Settlement Class Members can opt-out of the settlement by timely submitting a letter to the 18 Settlement Administrator requesting exclusion from the settlement. (Dkt. No. 82-1 at ¶ 24.)
 19 Settlement Class Members can also file a written objection to any part of the settlement and/or the 20 request for attorneys’ fees and costs. (Dkt. No. 82-3 at 11.)

21 DISCUSSION

22 A class action settlement agreement must be fair, adequate, and reasonable. Fed. R. Civ. P.
 23 23(e)(2). When, as here, parties reach an agreement before class certification, “courts must peruse 24 the proposed compromise to ratify both the propriety of the certification and the fairness of the 25 settlement.” Staton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 938, 952 (9th Cir. 2003). If the court preliminarily 26 certifies the class and finds the settlement appropriate after “a preliminary fairness evaluation,” 27 then the class will be notified, and a final fairness hearing scheduled to determine if the settlement 28 is fair, adequate, and reasonable pursuant to Rule 23. Villegas v. J.P. Morgan Chase & Co., No.

1 CV 09-00261 SBA (EMC), 2012 WL 5878390, at *5 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 21, 2012).

2 I. Conditional Certification of the Settlement Class

3 Class actions must meet the following requirements for certification:

4 (1) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is 5 impracticable; (2) there are questions of law or fact common to the 6 class; (3) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are 7 typical of the claims or defenses of the class; and (4) the 8 representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests 9 of the class.

10 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a). In addition to meeting the requirements of Rule 23(a), a putative class 11 action must also meet one of the conditions outlined in Rule 23(b)—as relevant here, the condition 12 that “questions of law or fact common to class members predominate over any questions affecting 13 only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly 14 and efficiently adjudicating the controversy.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3).

15 A. Rule 23(a)

16 The Rule 23(a) factors are satisfied. First, SCS estimates the Settlement Class could 17 contain approximately 100,000 members. (Dkt. No. 82-20 at ¶ 20.) Further, because Northern 18 Genesis’ common stock was traded on the NYSE and Embark’s common stock was traded on the 19 NASDAQ, the Court may reasonably conclude the numerosity requirement has been satisfied. See 20 Malriat v. QuantumScape Corp., No. 3:21-CV-00058-WHO, 2022 WL 17974629, at *3 (N.D.
 21 Cal. Dec. 19, 2022) (“[C]ourts may infer that, when a corporation has millions of shares trading on 22 a national exchange, the numerosity requirement is met.”).

23 Second, the typicality requirement is similarly satisfied. “The test of typicality is whether 24 other members have the same or similar injury, whether the action is based on conduct which is 25 not unique to the named plaintiffs, and whether other class members have been injured by the 26 same course of conduct.” A. B. v. Hawaii State Dep’t of Educ., 30 F.4th 828, 839 (9th Cir. 2022) 27 (cleaned up). Here, the claims of both Plaintiffs and Settlement Class Members arise from the 28 same set of circumstances—whether Defendants made material misrepresentations of material fact about Embark’s financial statements to the investing public during the relevant class period.
 Plaintiffs’ claims are therefore predicated on the same or similar legal theories as those of the 1 other Settlement Class Members.

2 Third, the commonality requirement is satisfied because there are common questions of 3 law and fact arising out of Defendants’ alleged misstatements. “The commonality requirement of 4 Rule 23(a)(2) requires plaintiffs seeking class certification to show that their claims depend upon a 5 common contention that is capable of classwide resolution—which means that determination of its 6 truth or falsity will resolve an issue that is central to the validity of each one of the claims in one 7 stroke.” A. B., 30 F.4th at 839 (cleaned up).

8 Finally, Hardy and Rochefort, the proposed class representatives, and class counsel appear 9 to be adequate representatives of the class. Hardy and Rochefort both purchased, owned, or held 10 shares in Northern Genesis or Embark during the respective class periods and their interests in 11 demonstrating Defendants’ liability and maximizing possible recovery are aligned with the absent 12 class members. The Court previously found class counsel, Pomerantz LLP, would fairly and 13 adequately represent the class given their significant experience in litigating securities class 14 actions. (Dkt. No. 24.) The Court has no reason to alter this view now when considering the Rule 15 23(g)(1)(A) factors.

16 B. Rule 23(b)(3)

17 As previously discussed, Rule 23(b)(3) requires a plaintiff to establish the predominance of 18 common questions of law or fact and the superiority of a class action relative to other available 19 methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. Rule 23(b)(3) includes the 20 following nonexhaustive list of factors pertinent to the predominance and superiority analysis:

21 (A) the class members’ interests in individually controlling the 22 prosecution or defense of separate actions; (B) the extent and nature 23 of any litigation concerning the controversy already begun by or 24 against class members; (C) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and (D) the likely difficulties in managing a class action.

25 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b).

26 1) Predominance

27 The “predominance inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to 28 warrant adjudication by representation.” Tyson Foods, Inc. v. Bouaphakeo, 136 S. Ct. 1036, 1045

1 (2016) (quotations omitted). The Supreme Court has defined an individualized question as one 2 where “members of a proposed class will need to present evidence that varies from member to 3 member.” Id. (quotations omitted). A common question, on the other hand, is one where “the same 4 evidence will suffice for each member to make a prima facie showing [or] the issue is susceptible 5 to generalized, class-wide proof.” Id. (quotations omitted).

6 Here, the Court concludes, for purposes of settlement, common questions raised by the 7 Plaintiffs’ claims predominate over questions affecting only individual members of the proposed 8 class. Plaintiffs allege as a result of Defendants’ materially false and/or misleading statements 9 regarding their financial status, they and members of the class were damaged when Defendants 10 restated its financial statements in November 2021. While Settlement Class Members will need to 11 rely upon individual evidence to some extent to calculate their pro rata share of the recovery, the 12 “mere fact that there might be differences in damage calculations is not sufficient to defeat class 13 certification.” In re Hyundai & Kia Fuel Econ. Litig., 926 F.3d 539, 559 (9th Cir. 2019).
14 Therefore, the Court finds the predominance requirement is met for purposes of provisional class 15 certification.

16 2) Superiority

17 The superiority requirement tests whether “a class action is superior to other available 18 methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). The 19 Court considers four non-exclusive factors: (1) the interest of each class member in individually 20 controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions; (2) the extent and nature of any 21 litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against the class; (3) the 22 desirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and (4) the 23 difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action. Id. The Court concludes 24 that a class action enables the most efficient use of Court and attorney resources and reduces costs 25 to the class members by allocating costs among them. Further, this forum is appropriate, and there 26 are no obvious difficulties in managing this class action.

27 In sum, the Court finds that the predominance and superiority requirements of Rule 28 23(b)(3) are met.

2 Accordingly, the Court concludes that conditional certification of the class for settlement 3 purposes is proper.

4 II. Preliminary Approval of the Settlement Agreement

5 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e) provides that “[t]he claims, issues, or defenses of a 6 certified class—or a class proposed to be certified for purposes of settlement—may be settled ...
7 only with the court’s approval.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e). “The purpose of Rule 23(e) is to protect the 8 unnamed members of the class from unjust or unfair settlements affecting their rights.” In re
9 Syncor ERISA Litig., 516 F.3d 1095, 1100 (9th Cir. 2008). So, before a district court approves a 10 class action settlement, it must conclude the settlement is “fundamentally fair, adequate and 11 reasonable.” In re Heritage Bond Litig., 546 F.3d 667, 674–75 (9th Cir. 2008).

12 In determining whether a class action settlement agreement meets this standard, the court 13 may consider some or all of the following factors:

14 (1) the strength of the plaintiff’s case; (2) the risk, expense, 15 complexity, and likely duration of further litigation; (3) the risk of 16 maintaining class action status throughout the trial; (4) the amount 17 offered in settlement; (5) the extent of discovery completed and the 18 stage of the proceedings; (6) the experience and views of counsel; (7) 19 the presence of a governmental participant; and (8) the reaction of the 20 class members to the proposed settlement.

21 Roes, 1-2 v. SFBSC Mgmt., LLC, 944 F.3d 1035, 1048 (9th Cir. 2019) (cleaned up). Whether a 22 settlement agreement has been negotiated before a class has been certified or after, the court must 23 also undertake an additional search for more “subtle signs that class counsel have allowed pursuit 24 of their own self-interests and that of certain class members to infect the negotiations.” Briseño v.
25 Henderson, 998 F.3d 1014, 1023 (9th Cir. 2021). The Ninth Circuit has identified three such 26 signs:

27 1) when counsel receive a disproportionate distribution of the 28 settlement, or when the class receives no monetary distribution but class counsel are amply rewarded;

2) when the parties negotiate a “clear sailing” arrangement providing for the payment of attorneys’ fees separate and apart from class funds, which carries the potential of enabling a defendant to pay class counsel excessive fees and costs in exchange for counsel accepting an unfair settlement on behalf of the class; and

1 3) when the parties arrange for fees not awarded to revert to 2 defendants rather than be added to the class fund.

3 In re Bluetooth Headset Prod. Liab. Litig., 654 F.3d 935, 947 (9th Cir. 2011) (internal quotation 4 marks and citations omitted).

5 Courts may preliminarily approve a settlement and notice plan to the class if the proposed 6 settlement: (1) appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations; (2) does 7 not grant improper preferential treatment to class representatives or other segments of the class; 8 (3) falls within the range of possible approval; and (4) has no obvious deficiencies. In re Lenovo
9 Adware Litig., No. 15-MD-02624-HSG, 2018 WL 6099948, at *7 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 21, 2018) 10 (citation omitted).

11 A. Whether the Settlement is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable

12 1) Settlement Process

13 The first factor concerns “the means by which the parties arrived at settlement.” Harris v.
14 Vector Mktg. Corp., No. C-08-5198 EMC, 2011 WL 1627973, at *8 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 29, 2011). To 15 approve a proposed settlement, a court must be satisfied the parties “have engaged in sufficient 16 investigation of the facts to enable the court to intelligently make ... an appraisal of the 17 settlement.” Acosta v. Trans Union, LLC, 243 F.R.D. 377, 396 (C.D. Cal. 2007). Courts thus 18 have “an obligation to evaluate the scope and effectiveness of the investigation plaintiffs’ counsel 19 conducted prior to reaching an agreement.” Id.

20 Plaintiffs’ counsel, Brenda Szydlo, submitted a declaration in support of preliminary 21 approval. (Dkt. No. 82.) According to Ms. Szydlo, the settlement was reached after a year of 22 litigation which included:

23 (1) an extensive investigation conducted by Lead Counsel; (2)
24 interviews with former Embark employees and/or consultants; (3) 25 detailed reviews of Embark’s public filings, annual reports, press 26 releases, and other publicly available information, including 27 information related to Embark’s financial position as disclosed in the 28 Company’s Form 10-Qs and Form 10-K filed with the SEC as of that time; (4) review of articles relating to Embark; (5) research of the applicable law with respect to the claims asserted in the two complaints filed in the litigation and the potential defenses thereto, in addition to relevant accounting and SEC guidance; (7) the preparation of the Complaint and the Amended Complaint; ([8]) contentious motion practice with respect to Defendants’ motion to dismiss; ([9])

1 consultations with experts; and ([10]) arm's length settlement 2 negotiations, which included Defendants' provision of certain documents, including the Company's insurance information.

3 (Dkt. No. 82 at ¶ 17.)

4 Again according to Ms. Szydlo, the risks of continued litigation as well as Defendants' 5 tenuous financial position warranted settlement. The Court agrees both factors support the 6 reasonableness of the settlement process here. First, Defendants had moved to dismiss Plaintiffs'
7 claims in their entirety arguing (1) Plaintiffs failed to allege materially false or misleading 8 statements in support of their claims; (2) because the statements related to the exercise of 9 accounting judgment, Plaintiffs were required to satisfy the heightened pleading standards set 10 forth in Omnicare, Inc. v. Laborers Dist. Council Constr. Indus. Pens. Fund, 575 U.S. 175 (2015), 11 and had not done so; and (3) Plaintiffs lacked statutory standing for purposes of their Section 11 12 claim. While the Court took the motion under submission following oral argument, as counsel 13 notes, the Court pressed her on many of these issues at length.

14 Second, while the motion to dismiss was pending, Embark filed its 2022 Annual Report on 15 Form 10-K indicating the board had "approved a process to explore 'potential strategic 16 alternatives'" including "alternative uses of the Company's assets to commercialize its technology, 17 additional sources of financing, as well as potential dissolution or winding up of the Company and 18 liquidation of its assets." (Dkt. No. 82-14 at 8.) According to the 10-K, the Company also 19 planned to reduce its headcount by 70%. (Id.) Further, several news articles reported the 20 company "was moving toward a total shutdown after running out of money to get to commercial 21 production." (Dkt. No. 82 at ¶ 6.) Plaintiffs' counsel thus attests she was concerned Embark 22 might declare bankruptcy during the pendency of this suit and it lacks the capacity to pay the 23 estimated $230.3 million in estimated aggregate damages were they to prevail at trial. (Id. at ¶ 7.)

24 With the above in mind, the parties engaged in confidential settlement negotiations 25 following the hearing on Defendants' motions to dismiss. Because of Embark's limited financial 26 resources, and in light of counsels' experience litigating securities class actions, the parties 27 determined it was not necessary to incur the expense of a mediator. (Id. ¶ 11.) On April 6, 2023, 28 the parties executed a Memorandum of Understanding memorializing the terms and conditions of

1 a settlement reached through their settlement negotiations. (Id. at ¶ 14.)

2 The settlement thus appears the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations.
3 This factor weighs in favor of approval.

4 2) Preferential Treatment

5 The Court next considers whether the Settlement Agreement provides preferential 6 treatment to any class member. The Ninth Circuit has instructed district courts to be “particularly 7 vigilant” for signs counsel have allowed the “self-interests” of “certain class members to infect 8 negotiations.” In re Bluetooth, 654 F.3d at 947. For that reason, courts in this district have 9 consistently stated preliminary approval of a class action settlement is inappropriate when the 10 proposed agreement “improperly grant[s] preferential treatment to class representatives.” Lenovo, 11 2018 WL 6099948, at *8 (quotations omitted).

12 Under the Settlement Agreement, each Settlement Class Member’s share of recovery will 13 be based “a customary pro rata distribution of the Net Settlement Fund among Authorized 14 Claimants” using a recognized loss formula. (Dkt. No. 82 at ¶¶ 21, 23.) The objective of the Plan 15 of Allocation is “to equitably distribute the Net Settlement Fund among Authorized Claimants 16 based on their respective alleged economic losses as a result of the alleged misconduct, as opposed 17 to losses caused by market- or industry-wide factors, or Company-specific factors unrelated to the 18 alleged misconduct.” (Id. at ¶ 22.)

19 While not specified in the Settlement Agreement, Plaintiffs also indicate they intend to 20 seek “modest monetary awards (of no more than $2,500 each) pursuant to Section 21D of the 21 PSLRA, 15 U.S.C. §78u-4(a)(4).” (Dkt. No. 65 at 14, n.10.) Incentive awards “are intended to 22 compensate class representatives for work done on behalf of the class, to make up for financial or 23 reputational risk undertaken in bringing the action.” Rodriguez v. West Publ’g Corp., 563 F.3d 24 948, 958–59 (9th Cir. 2009). Plaintiffs must provide sufficient evidence to allow the Court to 25 evaluate their award “individually, using ‘relevant factors includ[ing] the actions the plaintiff has 26 taken to protect the interests of the class, the degree to which the class has benefitted from those 27 actions, ... [and] the amount of time and effort the plaintiff expended in pursuing the litigation 28’” Stanton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 938, 977 (9th Cir. 2003).

1 The Court will defer ruling on the appropriateness of the amount of the requested service
2 awards until final approval. At this stage, there is no indication the service award in general 3 constitutes “preferential treatment” such that it would defeat preliminary approval.

4 3) Range of Possible Approval

5 The third factor the Court considers is whether the settlement is within the range of 6 possible approval. To evaluate whether the settlement amount is adequate, “courts primarily 7 consider plaintiffs’ expected recovery balanced against the value of the settlement offer.” Lenovo, 8 2018 WL 6099948, at *8. This requires the Court to evaluate the strength of Plaintiffs’ case.

9 Here, the total settlement amount is $2.5 million. Plaintiffs contend this amount represents 10 1.1% of the approximately $230.3 million in estimated aggregate damages based on the 11 calculations of their damages’ expert. (Dkt. No. 82 at ¶ 26.) Plaintiffs’ calculation omits the 12 additional $11.1 estimated aggregate damages for the Exchange Act class, but this only yields a 13 .1% difference in the percentage of recovery. (Dkt. No. 82-19 at ¶¶ 19-21.) Plaintiffs concede 14 this amount is slightly lower than other similar recoveries, but contends it is nonetheless within the 15 range of recovery and reasonable. See Wong v. Arlo Techs., Inc., No. 5:19-CV-00372-BLF, 2021
16 WL 1531171, at *9 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 19, 2021) (granting final approval where settlement 17 represented 2.35% of the total damages that Lead Plaintiff estimated could have been recovered if 18 his case was successful on all issues of liability and damages); see also Janeen McIntosh, Svetlana
19 Starykh, and Eward Flores, Recent Trends in Securities Class Action Litigation: 2022 Full Year 20 Review (NERA Economic Consulting January 24, 2023) at 18 (reflecting a median ratio of 21 settlement amount to investor loses of 1.8%) (available at 22 https://www.nera.com/content/dam/nera/publications/2023/PUB_2022_Full_Year_Trends.pdf).
23 Further, “[i]t is well-settled law that a cash settlement amounting to only a fraction of the potential 24 recovery does not per se render the settlement inadequate or unfair.” Officers for Justice v. Civil 25 Serv. Comm’n of City & County of S.F., 688 F.2d 615, 628 (9th Cir. 1982).

26 As discussed above, Plaintiffs have demonstrated the risks of continued litigation in this 27 case both as to the viability of their legal claims as currently pled (of which the Court is well 28 aware, having taking the motion to dismiss under submission) and in light of Embark’s financial

1 condition. Given these substantial risks, this factor also weighs in favor of granting preliminary 2 approval.

3 4) Fairness of Supplemental Agreement

4 The Court must also review the fairness of the parties' confidential Supplemental 5 Agreement. (Dkt. No. 82 at ¶ 32; Dkt. No. 82-1 at ¶ 59.) The existence of a termination option 6 triggered by the number of class members who opt out of the settlement does not by itself render 7 the Settlement unfair. See, e.g., Hefler v. Wells Fargo & Co., No. 16-CV-05479-JST, 2018 WL 8 6619983, at *7 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 18, 2018). At the Court's request, the parties submitted the 9 confidential Supplemental Agreement under seal. (Dkt. No. 86.) And having reviewed it, the 10 Court finds the termination provision does not impact the fundamental fairness of the Settlement 11 Agreement.

12 5) Cy Pres Recipient

13 The Court must also evaluate whether the proposed cy pres recipient is appropriate. A cy 14 pres award must qualify as "the next best distribution" to giving the funds to class members.
15 Dennis v. Kellogg Co., 697 F.3d 858, 865 (9th Cir. 2012). "Not just any worthy recipient can 16 qualify as an appropriate cy pres beneficiary," and there must be a "driving nexus between the 17 plaintiff class and the cy pres beneficiaries." Id. (quotation omitted).

18 Plaintiffs propose Bay Area Legal Aid "whose 'mission is to provide meaningful access to 19 the civil justice system through quality legal assistance' to 'low- and very low-income members of 20 our communities' including 'the working poor, seniors, veterans, [and] people with disabilities.'" (Dkt. No. 81 at 29 (citing <https://baylegal.org/who-we-are/our-mission/> (last visited Aug. 29, 21 2023))). However, Plaintiffs do not explain the "driving nexus" between the nationwide Settlement 22 Class and Bay Area Legal Aid. "Cy pres distributions must account for the nature of the plaintiffs' 23 lawsuit, the objectives of the underlying statutes, and the interests of the silent class members, 24 including their geographic diversity." Nachshin v. AOL, LLC, 663 F.3d 1034, 1036 (9th Cir.
25 2011).

26
27 The Court need not resolve this issue at the preliminary approval stage, but notes Plaintiffs 28 will need to explain why Bay Area Legal Aid is an appropriate cy pres beneficiary in this case on 1 final approval.

2 6) Obvious Deficiencies

3 The Court also considers whether the Settlement Agreement has obvious deficiencies.
4 Here, while the Court initially highlighted some concerns regarding the Settlement Agreement, 5 Plaintiffs' supplemental submission and the Amended Settlement Agreement (Dkt. Nos. 81, 82)
6 address these concerns such that the Court finds no obvious deficiencies that would preclude 7 preliminary approval.

9 Accordingly, consideration of the fairness factors warrants preliminary approval of the 10 Settlement Agreement.

11 III. Proposed Plan of Allocation

12 The Court also must preliminarily approve the Plan of Allocation. The court's review of 13 the distribution plan is governed by the same legal standards that apply to the approval of a 14 settlement: the plan must be fair, reasonable, and adequate. See, e.g., In re Citric Acid Antitrust 15 Litig., 145 F. Supp. 2d 1152, 1154 (N.D. Cal. 2001). "A settlement in a securities class action case 16 can be reasonable if it fairly treats class members by awarding a pro rata share to every Authorized 17 Claimant, but also sensibly makes interclass distinctions based upon, inter alia, the relative 18 strengths and weaknesses of class members' individual claims and the timing of purchases of the 19 securities at issue." Hampton v. Aqua Metals, Inc., No. 17-CV-07142-HSG, 2021 WL 4553578, at 20 *10 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 5, 2021) (internal quotation omitted). "[C]ourts recognize that an allocation 21 formula need only have a reasonable, rational basis, particularly if recommended by experienced 22 and competent counsel." Id.

23 The Plan of Allocation here uses a "recognized loss" value that tailors the recovery of each 24 class member to the purchase and sale of Embark and Northern Genesis common stock relative to 25 the class periods, as well as the number of shares at issue in each class member's claim. (Dkt. No.
26 82-3 at 13-15.) The Net Settlement Fund will be distributed on a pro rata basis according to each 27 Settlement Class Member's recognized loss. (Dkt. No. 82 at ¶ 24.) The Court concludes the Plan 28 of Allocation treats the class members fairly and preliminarily approves it.

1 IV. Class Notice Plan

2 For any class certified under Rule 23(b)(3), class members must be afforded “the best 3 notice that is practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who 4 can be identified through reasonable effort.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B). Such notice must clearly 5 state the following:

6 (i) the nature of the action; (ii) the definition of the class certified; (iii) 7 the class claims, issues, or defenses; (iv) that a class member may 8 enter an appearance through an attorney if the member so desires; (v) 9 that the court will exclude from the class any member who requests 10 exclusion; (vi) the time and manner for requesting exclusion; and (vii)
11 the binding effect of a class judgment on members under Rule 12 23(c)(3).

13 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B). “Notice is satisfactory if it generally describes the terms of the 14 settlement in sufficient detail to alert those with adverse viewpoints to investigate and to come 15 forward and be heard.” Churchill Vill., L.L.C. v. Gen. Elec., 361 F.3d 566, 575 (9th Cir. 2004) 16 (cleaned up).

17 In response to the Court’s concerns, Plaintiffs submitted Revised Notices and a Revised 18 Claim Form.³ (Dkt. Nos. 82-3, 82-4, 82-5.) These Revised Notices comply with the notice 19 requirements under Rule 23(c).⁴ The Revised Notices describe the allegations and claims in plain 20 language, defines the two components of the Settlement Class (the Securities Act Class and the 21 Exchange Act Class), includes contact information for Class Counsel and the Settlement 22 Administrator, and summarizes the settlement amount. The Revised Notices describe the Plan of 23 Allocation, which while lengthy and complicated, is more clearly explained than in the prior 24 version. The Revised Notices further describe the options available to class members, including 25 instructions for requesting exclusion from the settlement and filing an objection. Class Counsel 26 has adequately explained why class members who request exclusion or wish to object to the 27 settlement must provide information regarding their stock purchases. (Dkt. No. 81 at 26-27.) The 28

³ Plaintiffs have also explained why the costs of notice and claims administration are so high.
(Dkt. No. 82-20 at ¶¶ 21-23.)

⁴ In addition to the requirements under Rule 23(c), the Revised Notices comply with the Northern District’s Procedural Guidance for Class Action Settlements, available at <https://www.cand.uscourts.gov/ClassActionSettlementGuidance>.

1 Revised Notices also inform class members that receiving a share of the class settlement will 2 release certain claims against certain parties. The Notice informs class members they may appear 3 at the final fairness hearing in person or through an attorney. It directs class members to a website
4 with more information. Finally, the Revised Notices adequately advise how the class can review 5 Class Counsel’s motion for attorneys’ fees and costs prior to the final approval hearing. See In re
6 Mercury Interactive Corp. Sec. Litig., 618 F.3d 988, 995 (9th Cir. 2010) (holding class members 7 must “have an opportunity to oppose class counsel’s fee motion”).

8 In sum, these procedures appear sufficient to ensure that Settlement Class Members 9 receive adequate notice of the settlement and an opportunity to opt-out or object. Accordingly, the 10 Revised Notices and notice plan support preliminary approval.

11 V. Attorneys’ Fees and Costs

12 Rule 23(h) provides for an award of attorneys’ fees and costs in a certified class action 13 where it is “authorized by law or by the parties’ agreement.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(h). However, 14 “courts have an independent obligation to ensure that the award, like the settlement itself, is 15 reasonable, even if the parties have already agreed to an amount.” Bluetooth, 654 F.3d at 941.
16 Where a settlement produces a common fund for the benefit of the entire class, courts have 17 discretion to employ either the lodestar method or the percentage-of-recovery method to determine 18 whether the requested fees are reasonable. In re Mercury, 618 F.3d at 992. The Ninth Circuit has 19 established a benchmark of 25 percent of the common fund for attorneys’ fees calculations under 20 the latter method. See Powers v. Eichen, 229 F.3d 1249, 1256 (9th Cir. 2000) (“We have ...
21 established twenty-five percent of the recovery as a ‘benchmark’ for attorneys’ fees calculations 22 under the percentage-of-recovery approach.”). Although “[a] district court may depart from the 23 benchmark ..., it must be made clear by the district court how it arrives at the figure ultimately 24 awarded.” Id. at 1256-57.

25 “The lodestar figure is calculated by multiplying the number of hours the prevailing party 26 reasonably expended on the litigation (as supported by adequate documentation) by a reasonable 27 hourly rate for the region and for the experience of the lawyer.” Bluetooth, 654 F.3d at 941. The 28 resulting figure may be adjusted upward or downward to account for several factors, “including

1 the quality of representation, the benefit obtained for the class, the complexity and novelty of the 2 issues presented, and the risk of nonpayment.” Id. at 941-42 (internal quotation marks and citation
3 omitted). The party requesting fees bears the burden “of submitting billing records to establish that 4 the number of hours it requested are reasonable,” Gonzalez v. City of Maywood, 729 F.3d 1196, 5 1202 (9th Cir. 2013), as well as “produc[ing] satisfactory evidence—in addition to the attorneys’ 6 own affidavits—that the requested rates are in line with those prevailing in the community for 7 similar services by lawyers of reasonably comparable skill, experience and reputation,” Camacho
8 v. Bridgeport Fin., Inc., 523 F.3d 973, 980 (9th Cir. 2008) (internal quotation marks and citation 9 omitted). The Ninth Circuit recommends that whether the lodestar or percentage-of-recovery 10 method is used, the district court perform a cross-check using the other method to confirm the 11 reasonableness of the fee (e.g., if the percentage-of-recovery method is applied, a cross-check with 12 the lodestar method will reveal if the amount requested is unreasonable in light of the hours 13 reasonably expended). See Bluetooth, 654 F.3d at 944-45.

14 The Settlement Agreement is silent as to the amount of Plaintiffs’ request for attorneys’ 15 fees—it merely provides “Lead Counsel may submit an application” for attorneys’ fees and costs.
16 (Dkt. No. 23 at ¶ 45.) In the motion for preliminary approval, Plaintiffs indicate they intend to 17 seek up to $835,000 in attorneys’ fees which represents 33.4% of the settlement amount and is less 18 than counsel’s lodestar of $965,000 (for 1,249 hours). (Dkt. No. 82 at ¶ 27.)

19 While the Court has concerns regarding the amount of attorneys’ fees requested given, 20 among other things, the early stage of this litigation, the Court need not resolve this issue now.
21 Plaintiffs shall submit a motion for attorneys’ fees, including declarations and detailed billing 22 records, so the Court may determine an appropriate lodestar figure, and to allow Settlement Class
23 Members the opportunity to object to the requested fees. See In re Mercury, 618 F.3d at 995 24 (holding that class members must “have an opportunity to oppose class counsel’s fee motion” 25 before the deadline for filing objections set forth in the class notice). Counsel shall also submit 26 detailed information in support of their request for $140,000 in litigation expenses so the Court 27 can determine whether such costs are reasonable expenses incurred for the benefit of the class.
28 (Dkt. No. 82 at ¶ 27.)

1 CONCLUSION

2 For the reasons stated above, the Court GRANTS preliminary approval of the class action 3 settlement as follows:

- 4 1. This action is provisionally certified as a class action, for settlement purposes only,
5 pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23. The Court hereby preliminarily 6 certifies the following two classes (together the “Settlement Class”):

8 (a) The Exchange Act Class: all persons and entities that 9 beneficially owned and/or held the Company’s common stock as 10 of October 6, 2021, the record date, and were eligible to vote at 11 the Company’s November 9, 2021 special meeting with respect to 12 the business combination between the Company and privately 13 held Embark Trucks Inc. (“Legacy Embark”), completed on or 14 about November 10, 2021 (the “Business Combination”), and 15 were damaged thereby. The “Exchange Act Class Period” is 16 defined as the period from October 6, 2021 through November 10, 17 2021, both dates inclusive. Excluded from the Exchange Act
18 Class are (i) Defendants and the Individual Defendants’ family 19 members; (ii) directors and officers of the Company and their 20 families; (iii) any entity in which any of the Defendants have or 21 had a controlling interest; and (v) any Person who submits a 22 request for exclusion from the Settlement Class that is accepted 23 by the Court; and 24

25 (b) The Securities Act Class: all persons and entities who purchased 26 or otherwise acquired Embark common stock pursuant or 27 traceable to the July 2, 2021 registration statement, including all 28 amendments thereto, issued in connection with the November 2021 Business Combination between the Company and Legacy Embark, including shares of Embark common stock purchased in the open market during the period November 11, 2021 through December 13, 2021, both dates inclusive, (the “Securities Act Class Period”) and were damaged thereby. Excluded from the Securities Act Class are (i) Defendants and the Individual Defendants’ family members; (ii) directors and officers of the Company and their families; (iii) any entity in which any of the Defendants have or had a controlling interest; and (v) any Person who submits a request for exclusion from the Settlement Class that is accepted by the Court.

2. The Court preliminarily appoints Pomerantz LLP as Class Counsel for the Settlement Class.
3. The Court preliminarily appoints Lead Plaintiff Tyler Hardy and named Plaintiff Danny Rochefort as Class Representatives for the Settlement Class.

- 1 4. The Court approves the appointment of Huntington National Bank as the Escrow 2 Agent to manage the Settlement Fund for the benefit of the Settlement Class.
- 3 5. The Court approves and appoints Strategic Claims Services as the Settlement 4 Administrator to supervise and administer the notice procedure and the processing of 5 claims, and approves the payment of reasonable administration costs to the Settlement 6 Administrator from the proceeds of the Settlement, not to exceed $250,000 without 7 further Court order prior to the Effective Date.
- 8 6. Per the terms of the Amended Stipulation, Embark shall cooperate in the production of 9 information with respect to the identification of Settlement Class Members from the 10 Company's shareholder transfer records.
- 11 7. Within 20 days of entry of this Order, the Settlement Administrator shall:
 - 12 (a) Cause to be mailed to potential Settlement Class Members at the addresses set forth 13 in the shareholder transfer records provided by the Company, or who otherwise 14 may be identified through further reasonable effort, (i) the Notice, and (ii) Proof of 15 Claim.
 - 16 (b) Cause the Notice and Proof of Claim to be posted on the Settlement 17 Administrator's website; and
 - 18 (c) Cause the Summary Notice to be published once in a national business publication, 19 such as Investor's Business Daily, and be transmitted across the internet using a 20 national business newswire, such as PR Newswire.
- 21 8. As set forth in the notice plan, within 20 days of the date of this Order, the Settlement 22 Administrator shall make reasonable efforts to give notice to nominees, such as 23 brokerage firms, who purchased or otherwise acquired for the beneficial interest of 24 other persons, Embark common stock during the Securities Act Class Period, or owned 25 and/or held for the beneficial interest of other persons the Company's common stock 26 during the Exchange Act Class Period.
- 27 9. Plaintiffs shall file a copy of the Notice and Claim Form within 10 days of 28 dissemination of notice.

- 1 10. Class Counsel shall file a motion for attorneys’ fees and costs by November 30, 2023.
- 2 11. The deadline for class members to submit a Claim Form shall be December 22, 2023.
- 3 12. The deadline for class members to submit a Request for Exclusion shall be December
- 4 22, 2023.
- 5 13. The deadline for class members to object to the Settlement Agreement and/or Class
- 6 Counsel’s motion for attorneys’ fees and costs shall December 22, 2023.
- 7 14. Plaintiffs shall file their Motion for Final Approval by January 11, 2024. The motion
- 8 for final approval shall address the final approval guidelines in the Northern District of
- 9 California’s Procedural Guidance for Class Action Settlements, available at
- 10 <https://cand.uscourts.gov/forms/procedural-guidance-for-class-action-settlements/>, in
- 11 the order the guidelines are presented on the website. As reflected in the Guidance, the
- 12 Court will require a post-distribution accounting within 21 days after the distribution of
- 13 settlement funds. The Court will typically withhold between 10% and 25% of the
- 14 attorney’s fees granted at final approval until after the post-distribution accounting has
- 15 been filed. The final approval motion should specify what percentage class counsel
- 16 believes it is appropriate to withhold and why.
- 17 15. The parties shall appear before this Court for a final approval hearing on February 8,
- 18 2024 at 9:00 a.m. via Zoom video.

19 This Order disposes of Docket No. 65.
