NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The Court has jurisdiction to enter this Order and over the subject matter of the Ohio Securities Litigation Settlement and all parties thereto, including all Ohio Settlement Class Members.

2. Notice of the Ohio Fee and Expense Application was given to Ohio Settlement Class Members who could be identified with reasonable effort, and they were given the opportunity to object by May 21, 2024. 3. There have been no objections to Ohio Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees and expenses.

4. Ohio Class Counsel are hereby awarded attorneys' fees in the amount of 30% of the Ohio Securities Litigation Settlement Fund, which may be paid to Ohio Class Counsel as Settlement funds are deposited into the Settlement Fund, and $1,288,866.60 as payment of litigation expenses, plus accrued interest, which sums the Court finds to be fair and reasonable.

5. Class Representative George Troicky is hereby awarded $15,000 from the Ohio Securities Litigation Settlement Fund in connection with the time he has, to date, dedicated to representing the Ohio Settlement Class, pursuant to §21D(a)(4) of the PSLRA, 15 U.S.C. §78u-4(a)(4).

6. In making this award of attorneys' fees and expenses to be paid from the Ohio Securities Litigation Settlement Fund, the Court has considered and found that:

(a) The Settlement has created a fund of, at minimum, $3 million, plus subsequent additional funding of up to $7 million in cash that will be paid into the Settlement Fund pursuant to the terms of the Settlement, and that numerous Ohio Settlement Class Members who timely submit valid Ohio Claim Forms will benefit from the Settlement that occurred because of the efforts of counsel. The Settlement also requires the Post-Effective Date Debtors or Litigation Trustee, as applicable, to provide to Class Representative, for use in the continued prosecution of the Ohio Securities Litigation against the remaining defendants, all documents that were previously produced by the Debtors in response to any request for documents by (a) the SEC, (b) any party in the Delaware Shareholder Class Action, and (c) any party to the case In re Lordstown Motors Corp. S'holder Derivative Litig., No. 1:21-CV-00604-SB (D. Del.). Settling Defendant David Hamamoto has also agreed to make himself available to Ohio Class Counsel for interviews in order to provide Class Representative with information concerning any matter relevant to the ongoing prosecution of the Ohio Securities Litigation;

(c) 473,122 potential Settlement Class Members or their nominees were either mailed a Postcard Notice or emailed a direct link to the settlement webpage, long-form Notice, and Postcard Notice, stating that Ohio Class Counsel would apply for attorneys' fees in an amount not to exceed 30% of the Ohio Securities Litigation Settlement Fund and litigation expenses in an amount not to exceed $1,500,000;

(d) The claims against the Settling Defendants, arising under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, required the navigation of highly challenging and complex issues concerning, among other things, scienter, materiality, damages, and loss causation, with a substantial risk of non-payment given the contingent nature of the fee and the Debtors' financial condition and the filing of these proceedings;

(e) Had Ohio Class Counsel not achieved the Settlement, there was a significant risk that Class Representative and the other members of the Ohio Settlement Class may have recovered less or nothing from the Settling Defendants;

(f) Ohio Class Counsel have litigated the claims against the Settling Defendants and achieved the Settlement with skill, perseverance, and diligent advocacy;

(g) The attorneys' fees awarded and litigation expenses to be paid from the Ohio Securities Litigation Settlement Fund are fair and reasonable under the circumstances here, represent a unique recovery for defrauded investors in a Chapter 11 case, and are comparable with awards made in securities class action settlements within this District;

(h) Public policy concerns favor the award of attorneys' fees and expenses in securities class action litigation; and

(i) Ohio Class Counsel have expended more than 2,947 hours through April 30, 2024, with a lodestar value of $2,173,729.50, to achieve the Settlement.

7. Any appeal or any challenge affecting this Court's approval of Ohio Class Counsel's Fee and Expense Application shall in no way disturb or affect the finality of the Court's Order approving the Ohio Securities Litigation Settlement.

8. Exclusive jurisdiction is hereby retained over the Settling Defendants, Class Representative, and the Ohio Settlement Class Members for all matters relating to the Ohio Securities Litigation Settlement, including the administration, interpretation, effectuation, or enforcement of the Settlement and this Order.

9. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Bankruptcy Rules, including Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), this Order shall not be stayed upon its entry and shall become effective and enforceable immediately.
